AILSTOCK

My Ailstock line begins with my 7th great-grandfather, Michael Ailstock. Michael was born in the early 1700's and died in Louisa County, Virginia, in 1795. All of the early Ailstock information I have comes from cousins on the internet - one major contributor, Ralph Aylstock.

The Absalom named in Michael Ailstock's will is my 6th great-grandfather. The first census record I have is in 1810 - Aylstock, Absolem p.604 Botetourt Co, VA free black head of household (not sure this one is Michael's son). I also show an 1810 Tax List record in Louisa County for Absalom Ailstock - 1 white tithable.

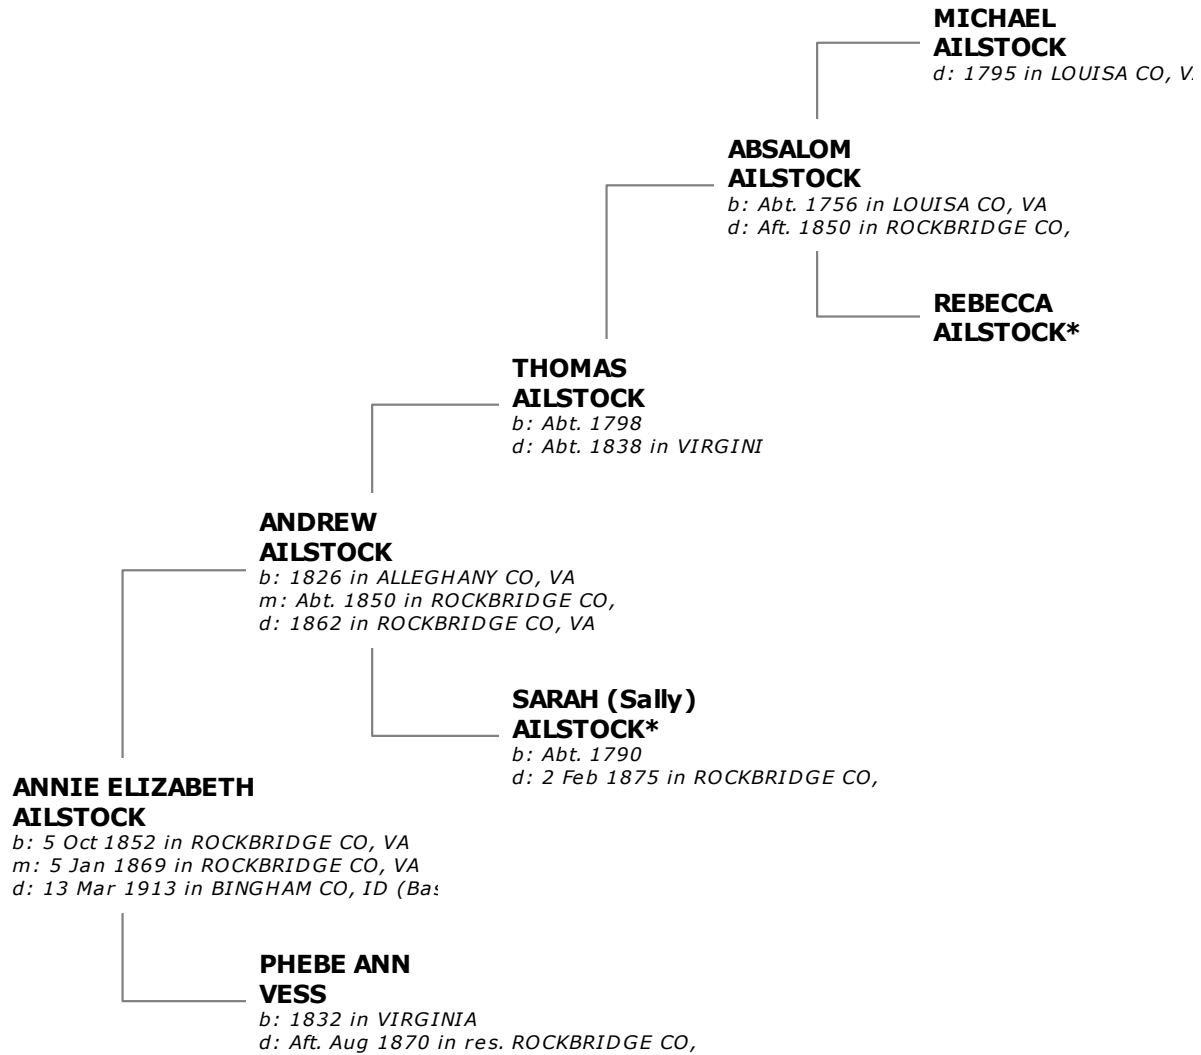

Thanks to Fred Aylstock, another cousin, I have a record of the pension request Absalom made for his service during the Revolutionary War. According to "Virginia Soldiers of 1776", by Burgess (1973, pg. 1246/7), Absolem Ailstock enlisted as a Private in the Albemarle Company of Captain Harris (joined at Williamsburg, 19 Sept., 1781 and was discharged 6 Nov. after 48 days). Also, Fred provided me with a deed record for the land in Rockbridge County, VA, that Absalom received for his war service.

The last census record I have on Absalom is in 1850 Rockbridge County, VA – he is reported to be a “malato” and aged 94. From internet cousins I learned that my 5th great-grandfather was Absalom's son, Thomas. Thomas Ailstock is recorded in Alleghany County, Virginia in the 1830 census. Thomas does not show up in the 1840 census - it appears that his wife, Sally, is widowed and living in Augusta County – the exact location, date, and circumstances of Thomas's death are unknown. By 1842, Sally Ailstock and her family are located in Rockbridge County, Virginia.

Andrew Ailstock, son of Thomas and Sallie, was my fourth great-grandfather. Ailstock cousin, Odell McGuire, shared information about Andrew Ailstock's will - the will was executed on August 3rd 1862, and Andrew died in November of that year. In this will he noted that he was never married, but acknowledged that he was the natural father of Alice, Sally (Sarah Margaret), and Julia. Odell relays that: John Ricketts, a free negro, made and laid bricks at Rockbridge Alum Springs where the Sally Ailstock family lived. His daughter, Phebe Ricketts, became Andy Ailstock's common law wife. She brought older children to the marriage and had Children by Andrew, as well. Andrew did not acknowledge the older children in his will, but they went by the Ailstock name. Other relatives say that Phebe's name was Phebe Morris and this was actually referred to in the birth record of her and Andrew's daughter, Sarah. Confusing the issue more is information in the death certificate of Annie Elizabeth Ailstock (daughter of Phebe and Andrew) that states that Phebe's name was Phebe Vess. I recorded the various Morris and Vess families in the Rockbridge County area for future reference. I found the widowed Phebe Ailstock for the last time in the 1870 Rockbridge County, Virginia census.

By 1870, Annie Elizabeth Ailstock, had started her family with Charles Edward Grigsby; they were married Jan 1869 in Rockbridge County. Charles was born in Wayne County, New York, the son of Samuel and Mary Grigsby - immigrants from England. Charles and Annie remained in Rockbridge County for a while, then later lived in Millboro, Bath County, Virginia. After the 1880 census, Charles and Annie Grigsby moved to Bingham County, Idaho. Annie Elizabeth Ailstock Grigsby died in Bingham County, Idaho on March 13, 1913. Annie and Charles Grigsby's son, Sanford Samuel Grigsby, ended up living in Fayette County, West Virginia where he married Susan Mary Ennis, in 1897. Susan Ennis was the daughter of James W. and Hulda Jane Kincaid Ennis of Fayette County. Sanford and Susan were the parents of my great-grandfather, Forrest Leonard Grigsby.

<sup>3</sup> All the children in this family were reported as "mulatto" in the census. There is considerable speculation into the race of the Ailstock line. Many records state that family members have been categorized "Mulatto". It seems that the term is open to much debate and that nobody is really sure if the original Ailstock race were "Negro" or Indian. Ailstock cousin, Diana Havens, expands on the Indian heritage view in an article within this text.

<sup>7</sup> It is reported to me from Ailstock cousin, Kitty Sachs, that Andrew Ailstock and Pheobe Rickett Morris (one time wife of Elihu B. Morris were married by common law – and that Andrew adopted Pheobe's children from her previous marriage. The Morris name is mentioned in the birth record of Sarah M. Ailstock, daughter of Andrew and Pheobe. Information passed on to me from my grandmother, Alma Mitchell, says Andrew married Pheobe Vess – Annie Elizabeth Ailstock's death record also shows her mother as Pheobe Vess (but there is a middle initial "M" in her name that is not explained.) I am still researching leads to prove Pheobe's last name. Andrew may also have been married more than once - a fact I need to research further.

<sup>10</sup> On 5 Jan 1869, Charles Grigsby married Annie Elizabeth Ailstock in Rockbridge County, VA. Annie was the daughter of Andrew and Pheobe Ailstock. <sup>11</sup> Pheobe Aylstock, widow of Andrew, was the mother of Annie Elizabeth Ailstock.

Absalom Ailstock Affidavit for Request of Pension<sup>15</sup>

State of Virginia

Rockbridge County; October 1, 1832

On this day personally appeared in open Court, before the justices of said Court, said Court being a Court of record, and now sitting. Absalom Ailstock a resident in said County and State, aged 70 years, who being first duly sworn according to Law, doth on his Oath, make the following declaration, in order to obtain the benefit of the Act of Congress, passed June 7th 1832.

That he entered the service of the United States, under the following named officers, and served as herein stated. This applicant is a free born Mulatto, and not being able to read, or write, is too unacquainted with dates, to be particular, as to the exact periods when he went into the service.

This applicant states, that he was born in Louisa County, State of Virginia, (the year he does not know having no record of his age, where he lived until 17 or 18 years after the Revolution, when he moved to this County, where he has since lived. He states that his first service in the Revolution, was from the County of Louisa, in this State, the Militia having been called out by divisions under Col. Nelson & Captain John Saunders, both of Louisa County, it being rumored that the British were about to land upon the Virginia Coast, he cannot state in what year this happened, but believes it was in the year preceding Cornwallis' defeat, and thinks he was about 17 years old from the circumstance, that a short time previous to this, he was not capable of standing a draught for 18 months, not being 18 years of age, the age required by Law, and that in the summer following his first tour, he did stand a draught for a term of 18 months, but drew clear. He states that he moved from Louisa County in the beginning of the winter, to Hanover Courthouse, in this state, where he went under the command of Col. Fountaine (sp) and Major Winston, Adjutant officers, and Col. Nelson returned home, thence proceeded to New Kent Courthouse, received orders (as the applicant thinks from the Governor, after remaining one week at New Kent Courthouse, and returned to Hanover Courthouse, there remained two or three weeks, when Adjutant Mayers (if the applicant recollects right, he being called by the soldiers Sandy Mayers), was sent to the Governor for further orders, who returned with directions to dismiss the men. And this applicant returned, after a service of 4 weeks he received no discharge, the orders from the Governor being a general discharge to the Louisa Militia, as he understood from it being read aloud by Adjutant Mayers.

This applicant further states, in the same summer as he was in his first tour, in the spring following, about the 1st of April, in the year of Cornwallis' Defeat, and marched from said County under Capt. William Harris of Louisa County, directly to Richmond, where he joined the 2nd Regiment, under Col. Richardson and Major Armistead. The British he states had been at Manchester on the opposite side of the river, and burned the Tabacco ware houses (sic), the ruins of which this applicant distinctly saw from the Richmond side. Thence marched down the River in Nelson's Brigade, how far he cannot say, to a place called as he believes "Marben Hills" upon the river, where the Brigade was stationed, for the reason as this applicant believes, that the British were in the habit of coming up the River as high as this place in two gun boats (little boats with a gun on each end) for the purpose of Plunder, whilst here Col. Richardson had a skirmish with the gun boats, two of which he took, and 17 men Prisoners, thence marched down the River, about a day's journey, thence across to Spotsylvania, where this applicant's term of service expired, and he was discharged. This applicant gave his discharge to one of his fellow soldiers, not having a safe place to keep it, and has never seen it since. This tour was 3 months & 2 days.

<sup>15</sup> Thanks to cousin, Fred Aylstock, I have a record of the pension request Absalom made for his service during the Revolutionary War. According to "Virginia Soldiers of 1776", by Burgess (1973, pg. 1246/7), Absalom Ailstock enlisted as a Private in the Albemarle Company of Captain Harris (joined at Williamsburg, 19 Sept., 1781 and was discharged 6 Nov. after 48 days). Also, Fred provided me with a deed record for the land in Rockbridge County, VA, that Absalom received for his war service.

This applicant states that he served another tour of 3 month's service, having been called out in the same manner as formerly, about the middle of July succeeding the last term, and marched to near old Williamsburg, under Capt. Benjamin Harris of Louisa County, where he joined Nelson's Brigade (afterwards at York called Lawson's Brigade). Col. Richardson was a field officer in this Brigade, and Major Martin had taken the place of Major Armistead, as the applicant believes, thence marched below Williamsburg a short distance where the Brigade encamped until Washington's troops came in from the north, in the rear of which, the Brigade fell and marched on to York. This applicant states that the Battle was commenced on Sunday morning, by the French at the Poplar Redoubt, and the next day, the regiment to which this applicant belonged, was transferred to the redoubt, for the purpose of changing it into a gun battery. This applicant that he was occupied during the siege in digging intrenchments, and making sand baskets and facines (sp) for the intrenchment Batteries. This applicant received his discharge by order of General Lawson, from aides by Sergeant Shelton, which discharge he delivered to one of his mess mates, for safe keeping, and has never seen it since. This applicant's service was in this tour was 3 months lacking 4 or 5 days.

This applicant can refer to the knowledge of no living witness in his behalf. But to Daniel Ruth of his neighborhood, James D. Davidson, Richard Harris and the Rev. Andrew B. Davidson all of said County, as evidence in his behalf.

This applicant hereby relinquishes every Claim to a Pension or Annuity, except the present, and declares that his name is not in the Pension Role of the Agency of any State.

Sworn to and subscribed the day above written.

Testimonial Appendix

I Daniel Ruth of the County aforesaid, and residing in the neighborhood of the applicant who has sworn to and subscribed the above declaration, do certify, that I am well acquainted with the said Absalom Ailstock. That I believe him to be 70 years of age, as he represents, that he is a free born Mulatto, and has always supported an unimpeached Character for honest and verocity. That is the general belief of his neighborhood that he served Revolution . . . to my knowledge have ever existed upon the subject, and that I concur in that opinion. I further certify that I have often at different times several years preceding this application when the . . . (missing next page)

Exploring Ailstock Indian Heritage

Absolom & Nancy Jane m.9 July 1863, produced a child by the name of Agnes Catherine "Kate" Allstock b.1872. The following information was taken from a personnel interview of William Harrison Riley the husband of Kate, that was done in 1940 by Charles Riley.

William stated in the interview that, Kate was full blood Indian, and that her parents (Absolom & Nancy Jane) were first cousins, and John & Margaret were first cousins, Andrew & Nancy were first cousins. Because his GrandFather was George Allstock b.1805 Alleghany Co., they were allowed to marry, and were given a large parcel of land in Millboro, by Absolom & Nancy Jane. He also went on to say, that a lot of Allstock's, were shamed by the government, but some themselves by declaring to be Mulattos, just to have the right to own land. He also stated that a few had married Blacks, as it was better to be Black than Indian. He also stated that the Allstock family were inhabitants of the Shanandoah Valley, from as far back as the early 1600's.

The aforementioned was from notes of Charles Riley, Charles grew up believing he was the son of William, it wasn't till a few years before his death, he found out, that he was his stepson, at that point he discontinued all research, Rick and family are researching his possible family line, and looking for Whitecotten, Moats and Simmons, in WV and VA, would love any information on these families, if anyone has a connection to them.

I have not seen the written statements, nor do I doubt Rick's memory of what she saw in her Father-in-laws papers. At present Rick just moved and all the paperwork, she has is in a moving van somewhere in PA, got a hold of her by accident, at her sons house.
