DESCENDANTS OF JOHN CROSBY	17

CROSBY

The earliest Crosby record I have is of John Crosby, born about 1440 in Yorkshire, England (Styllyngfleyte). The majority of my early Crosby information comes from internet sources and the Latter Day Saints ancestral files. My ancestry follows from John to Miles, Thomas, Anthony, and then to the first Crosby to settle in Massachusetts, my 12th great-grandfather, Thomas. Thomas Crosby was born about 1575 in Holme-on-Spalding-Moor, County York, England. Thomas married Jane Sothern in 1600 - they were the parents of my 11th great-grandfather, Simon Crosby.

Simon Crosby is a common grandfather of Harry Lillis "Bing" Crosby and myself - a relationship that makes us 8th cousin's (4 times removed). Simon's oldest son, the Reverend Thomas Crosby (1634 - 1661), is the line that follows down to "Bing" through son, Simon, and five generations of Nathaniel's. Reverend Thomas Crosby is reported to be the last Crosby of our ancestry to be born in England. The second son of Simon was Simon Crosby, Jr., my 10th great-grandfather.

Simon Crosby, Jr. was born in Middlesex County, Massachusetts (Cambridge) on 6 August 1637. If birth locations are accurate then this would make the Crosby immigration to the United States approximately 1635. My Crosby line remained in Massachusetts for nearly 100 years, from Simon Jr. through Joseph, Robert, and Jonah Crosby. The first record of my Crosbys' outside Massachusetts is evidenced in their presence in 1800 Kennebec County, ME and the reported birth of Ezra Crosby (6th great-grandfather) in Winslow, Maine.

Ezra Crosby married Teresa Sherwin of Dunstable County, Maine and were the parents of Cummings Crosby, my fifth great-grandfather. In 1814, Ezra Crosby died and I found Cummings Crosby and family in 1820 Somerset County, Maine, and again in 1830/1850 Penobscot County, living near his cousin, Manson.

According to the 1850 census, Teresa Sherwin Crosby apparently remarried to a gentleman named Whitman. I believe Cummings wife, Dorcas, died some time before 1874 because I found a record of a Cummings Crosby marriage to Julia A. Hillman on 28 Dec 1874 in Penobscot Co, ME (Civil) - there has never been any record of another Cummings Crosby. After 1870, I could not find Cummings Crosby - until his 1889 death in Ottawa County, Kansas. I do not know what route, or with who, Cummings traveled to end up in Kansas. His son, Ezra, moved away from Maine prior to 1850 - I located him in Pike County, Ohio.

The first child of Glockus and Mary Thompson Crosby, Iona (born Aug 1868), was my great-great-grandmother. In 1873, the Crosby family moved on to Kansas. A biography of Ezra Crosby, extracted from a history accounting of Ottawa County, KS from a book titled, "History of Kansas", provides more information.

Ezra Crosby married Elizabeth Mallichs, of Scottish parents, in 1842 Pike County. Their oldest son and my third great-grandfather, Glockus Parker Crosby, was born in 1843 Pike County, Ohio. The next location I have on the Ezra Crosby family was in West Union TWP, Fayette County, Iowa.

In August 1866, Glockus married Mary Ann Thompson, daughter of William and Mary Learns Thompson, in Fayette County, IA. Looking through the 1860 and 1870 census reports for Thompson families, I recorded many that could possibly be related - including a probable Learn's uncle.

I was able to verify much of the Crosby data I have from the Ottawa County death records of Glockus and Mary Thompson Crosby, and the marriage records of Loren E. Crosby and the children of Glockus and Mary.

Glockus and Mary Crosby remained in Ottawa County until their deaths. The 1924 death notice on Glockus contained interesting information on his Iowa background and his exploits during the Civil War. Mary Thompson Crosby died the following year.

In 1886 Ottawa County, KS, Iona Crosby married Joseph Edmund Davis. Joseph was the son of John and Elizabeth Stewart Davis. Joseph and Iona remained in Ottawa County until their deaths and are buried at Highland Cemetery, in Minneapolis. Iona remarried to Andrew Staley a few years after Joseph's death. Joseph and Iona Crosby Davis were the parents of my great-grandfather, Elzy Ray Davis.

Biographies

Ezra Crosby

DR. EZRA CROSBY, physician and surgeon, and dealer in drugs, medicines, and druggists' sundries, began trade in Ottawa County, Kan., in the summer of 1873, since which time he has practiced his profession and followed the drug trade in Milo, Lincoln County, three years. He first began in the dry-goods trade, and finally took up the drug trade, and now carries a stock of $3,000. He was born in Plymouth, Penobscot Co., Me., Nov. 7 1820, living in his native place until 1841, when he went to New Orleans, La., where for a short time he was engaged on public works thence; to Waverly, Pike Co., Ohio, where he was married to Miss Elizabeth Maddox, of Highland County the same State. He lived in Ohio until 1954, and is a home-read physician. In 1862 he enlisted in Company A, Thirty-eighth Iowa Volunteer Infantry, participating in all the battles of his command, and promoted to First Lieutenant; mustered out in 1865. They have two sons - Glocus P., in company with his father, and Lorin E., engaged in the drug trade at Milo, Lincoln County. The Doctor is a member of the Masonic order.

Glocus P. Crosby

GLOCUS P. CROSBY. There are few men better known in Ottawa County than Glocus P. Crosby, who has been an active and useful resident of Minneapolis for forty-five years, is county surveyor and is a veteran of the Civil war. He has seen this section of Kansas develop and has done his full part both in personal effort and in professional activities. Mr. Crosby was born October 7, 1843, at Piketon in Pike County, Ohio, and is the elder of two sons born to his parents, Ezra and Elizabeth (Maddox) Crosby.

The early Crosbys were New England people, and Cummins Crosby, the grandfather of Glocus P. Crosby, was born in Maine in 1799. He was a lumberman and in early manhood took part in the strife that often broke out on the boundary line between Maine and New Brunswick, which was mainly confined to the logging camps. He came to Kansas later in life, retiring from all activity in 1892, although still a man of remarkable vigor. He died in 1897 at the home of his son in Minneapolis, being then aged ninety-eight years.

Ezra Crosby, father of Glocus P. Crosby, was born near the Penobscot River in Maine in 1820, and was reared to manhood there. He then went to Pike County, Ohio, and engaged in work at his trade at Piketon, having learned the manufacture of brick. In 1853 he moved to Fayette County, Iowa, and there was engaged in brickmaking until 1872, in which year he came to Minneapolis, Kansas. Here he established a general store and later a drug store, being a man of great enterprise, and continued in merchandising during the rest of his active life, his death occurring at Minneapolis in 1903, his years not reaching those of his father, but being indicative of a robust New England heritage to longevity not altogether unusual. In the meanwhile, in 1862, Ezra Crosby proved his loyalty and patriotism by enlisting for service in the Civil war, entering the Thirty-eighth Iowa Volunteer Infantry. He saw hard service, participating in the siege of Vicksburg, in the dangerous guerilla warfare along the Gulf of Mexico and the Mississippi River, and was in the conflict at Island No. 10, but survived all the hazards of war and returned safely to his home and quietly resumed peaceful pursuits. In West Union, Iowa, he was married to Elizabeth Maddox, who was born in 1821, on the Atlantic Ocean while her parents were crossing from Scotland to the United States. They settled near Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. Crosby grew up there. She died at Minneapolis, Kansas, in 1888, the mother of two sons: Glocus P. and Loren E., the latter of whom died at Fort Collins, Colorado, at the age of fifty-five years.

Glocus P. Crosby attended the country schools in Fayette County, Iowa, but made his best educational record in mathematics and when only twelve years old began to be interested in the principles of surveying. In fact he displayed a natural talent in that direction, and all through the years that followed before he found the opportunity to perfect his knowledge in this art, both eye and hand were in training. Many a weary hour of marching during his service as a soldier in the Civil war was lightened by his knowledge of contour, form, area and distance, a surveyor's conception that his ordinary comrade neither took interest in or understood.

In 1862 he enlisted in the same regiment as did his patriotic father, and he took part in the same battles. He was appointed an orderly to General Steele and carried the dispatch that gave the orders to the different commanders to advance and fight in what proved to be the closing battle of the war, that of Fort Blakely, Alabama, April 9, 1865. Notwithstanding his hazardous office, Mr. Crosby escaped all serious injuries and returned to his home practically uninjured. He has always taken a deep interest in the Grand Army of the Republic and is a valued member of Minneapolis Post No. 47.

After his military duties had been bravely discharged Mr. Crosby returned to Iowa and followed surveying there until he came to Minneapolis, Kansas, in 1872. In 1878 he was elected county surveyor of Ottawa County and served two terms and then, after an intermission, was appointed county surveyor by Governor Glick. In 1900 he was again elected to this office, to which he has been continuously reelected ever since, this evidence of public approval being not only a testimonial to his skill and professional accuracy, but to his personal character as well. In Mr. Crosby Ottawa County has an efficient and honest official.

In 1866, at West Union, Fayette County, Iowa, Mr. Crosby was married to Miss Mary A. Thompson, who came to Iowa from Cincinnati, Ohio, and they have four children, namely: Iona, the wife of J. E. Davis, who is employed at Minneapolis, Kansas; N. G., who is a resident of Denver, Colorado; Almeda, who is the wife of S. E. Jackson, and they reside at Santa Anna, California; and Elizabeth H., who is the wife of Pearl Davis, and they reside at Medford, Oregon.

Mr. Crosby has always been identified with the republican party and is old enough to remember its birth. Its principles have always appealed to his sense of right and he has given it his hearty support. He is a member of the Presbyterian Church at Minneapolis and to this and other religious organizations he has been as generous as his circumstances would permit. In 1905 Mr. Crosby erected his comfortable modern residence on Ross Avenue in this city.¹⁰

Obituaries

Cummings Crosby (1796-1889)

Death of Cummings Crosby

Last Saturday morning Cummings Crosby, father of Dr. E. Crosby, died. He had been sick for some time, but the principal cause was old age. If he had lived until the 19th of February he would have been 93 years old. He was born in Maine, Feb. 19th 1796.

The old gentleman was nearly up to his last days, very bright, and a pleasant conversationalist, and could relate very exciting scenes from the past years. He has been living with his son, Dr. Crosby, who is his third child, for a number of years.

The burial services were conducted at the residence last Sunday by C.P. Leonard, and the remains were interred in Highland Cemetery.

The doctor and his family have the sympathy of many friends in his loss.

Minneapolis Messenger (died 19 Jan 1889)

Ezra Crosby (1820-1898)

Dr. Ezra Crosby Dead

Dr. Ezra Crosby died at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Markley, in the city, last Saturday morning. his health had been poor for a number of years and for the past months he has been almost if not totally blind. A few years ago he moved with his wife to Barnard, where he lived until lately, when he came to this city to be nearer to medical assistance and lived with his wife's daughter, Mrs. George Markley, where he died last Saturday morning.

Dr. Ezra Crosby was born in Plymouth, Penobscot County, Maine, Nov. 7th 1820. When about eighteen years of age he went to New Orleans and was for a time employed as a mason on the government works near that city. He later moved to Waverly, Ohio, and it was at this place that he married in 1842 to Miss Elizabeth A. Madden (error - marriage record shows "Mallichs"). Shortly after his marriage he moved to Piketon, Ohio where he lived until 1853, when he moved to West Union, Iowa where he resided until 1872, when with his wife and family of two boys he moved to this state and located in Lindsey. He afterwards moved to this city, where for several years he was the proprietor of one of the largest drug stores in the Solomon valley.

Dr. Crosby enlisted in the Army in company A, of the 58th regiment of Ohio (error - it was "Iowa") Infantry, in August 1863, and served through the entire war. He was with Sherman in in that memorable march to the seas and in some of the most hotly contested battles of the war. His son Parker Crosby of this city was a member of the same company and regiment. That Dr. Crosby was a good soldier is evidenced by the fact that he entered the service a private and for bravery and gallant service was promoted to orderly sergeant and was mustered out as a lieutenant.

The deceased joined the Presbyterian church at Waverly Ohio and was a consistent and active member of the Presbyterian church at Waverly until 1853, when he moved to Iowa. His wife died in Minneapolis August 27th 1888, and he was afterwards married to Mrs. Jennie Fowler, who with his two sons by his first wife, survive him.

His funeral service took place from the Methodist church in this city last Sunday afternoon. Rev. D.R. Laport, pastor of the Methodist church of Barnard, preached the funeral sermon and his remains were followed to Highland cemetery by a large concourse of friends and old neighbors.

Minneapolis Messenger (died 2 Apr 1898)

Glockus Parker Crosby (1843-1924)

Glockus Parker Crosby, son of Dr. E. Crosby, was born at Canton, Ohio, October 6, 1843 and died at his home in Minneapolis, on Monday, February 11, 1924, aged 80 years.

Mr. Crosby was united in marriage to Miss Mary Ann Thompson at West Union, Ohio (error - should be Iowa) on August 22, 1866, and his widow with four children survive him. The children are Mrs. J.E. Davis, of Minneapolis, N.G. Crosby and Mrs. S.C. Jackson of Loveland, Col., and Mrs. Pearl Davis of Medford, Oregon.

Mr. Crosby came to Kansas in 1872 and since that time has been a resident of this city. He served as county surveyor for a number of years. For several years Mr. Crosby had been in failing health, and the end was not unexpected. Since the children were grown and established with families of their own, he and Mrs. Crosby had lived together very quietly. He found much pleasure in raising small fruits and had some nice chickens, pheasants, and an heron, which afforded him all the employment needed for his declining years.

Mr. Crosby enlisted in the Iowa regiment and served three years during the Civil war.

Some years ago he united with the Presbyterian church and remained a member until his death.

The funeral was held at the Smith funeral home in this city Monday and was conducted by Rev. H.M. Templin. The members of the G.A. R. were present to pay their last respects to one who met with them for many years. Minneapolis Messenger

Mary Thompson Crosby (1847-1925)

MARY ANN CROSBY

Mary Ann Crosby was born at Cincinnati, Ohio May 23 1847, and died at her home in Minneapolis Tuesday September 22, 1925 at 8:50 a.m., at the age of 78 years, 3 months and 25 days. She had been a resident of our city for 53 years. Her husband, Glockus P. Crosby, preceded her in death a number of years ago (error - he died in 1924).

She leaves the following children: Mrs. J.E. Davis, N.G. Crosby, Mrs. S.C. Jackson and Mrs. Pearl Davis; also two brothers, William and John Thompson of West Union, Iowa. Funeral services were held from the Linus B. Smith Funeral Home Wednesday afternoon at three o'clock with internment in Highland Cemetery. Minneapolis Messenger

Iona Crosby Davis Staley (1868-1941)

Iona Crosby, daughter of G.P. and Mary Ann Thompson Crosby, was born in West Union, Iowa, August 4, 1868, and died at her home in Minneapolis, Kansas, Saturday morning, June 21, at the age of 72 years, 10 months, and 13 days.

At the age of 4 she came (to Minneapolis) with her parents where the past 69 years of her life was spent. She was a granddaughter of the former Dr. Ezra Crosby, who in the early days operated a drug store in Minneapolis.

On December 7, 1886, she was married to Joseph Edmund Davis, and to them five children were born, four sons and one daughter, as follows: E. Ray, Harry E., Arthur R. of Medford, Oregon, and Mrs. Mae Freel of North Plate, Nebr., all of whom survive. A son Dode Glenn preceded her in death in July, 1932. Mr. Davis died in 1933.

She was married to A.J. Staley in Minneapolis August 8, 1936. She was a member of the Methodist Church and as long as health permitted was faithful to its services and its work.

Besides her husband and four children she leaves to mourn for her 17 grandchildren, one sister Mrs. Pearl Davis of Medford, Oregon, one brother Norman Crosby of Denver, Colo., a sister, Mrs. Almada Jackson died in 1935.

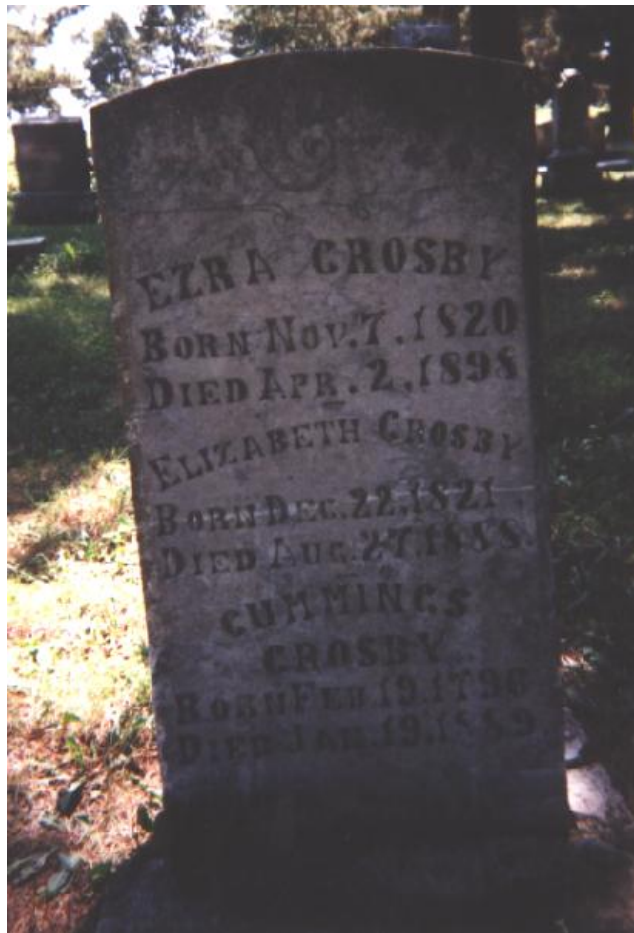

Funeral services will be held this Thursday afternoon at 2:30 from the Methodist Church, with Rev. Fred Blanding in charge. Burial will be in the Highland Cemetery.
