CAREY

One difficulty of researching Irish records comes from the number of records that were destroyed. The original census returns for 1861 and 1871 were destroyed shortly after the censuses were taken. Those for 1881 and 1891 were pulped during the First World War, probably because of the paper shortage. The returns for 1821, 1831, 1841 and 1851 were, apart from a few select 1821 and 1831 counties, were mostly destroyed in 1922 in a fire at the Public Records Office at the beginning of the Irish Civil War. The only real source of older records comes from parish church records (birth, marriage, and death records) - a very tedious process if access is available and transcriptions are readable.

The Carey family ancestors were settled in County Clare in the southwest region of Ireland, Province of Munster, for many generations. Immigration tracking to the US for the Carey's of this research is confirmed in a 1902 ship manifest when Austin Carey, son of William and Bridget Hanrahan Carey came to New York.

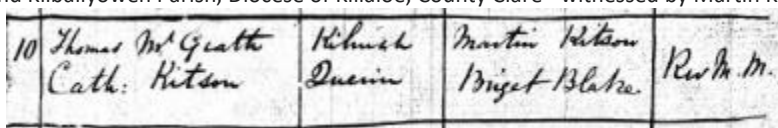

My documentation for the Carey line begins with William (1855-1894) and Bridget Hanrahan (abt. 1846-1905) Carey. I found Bridget in the 1901 Cooraclare \(formerly Kilmacduane\), County Clare, Ireland census living with four of her children - her husband William, had died in 1894. Both William and Bridget are buried in the Kilmacduane Graveyard in Cooraclare, Ireland along with other family members. Austin Carey (1880-1935) was one of the sons living with his mother in the 1901 census and the US immigrant ancestor of this research.

Austin Carey departed from Queenstown, Ireland and arrived at the port of New York, New York May 21, 1902 on the ship Oceanic. His Dec 3, 1917 naturalization application contained conflicting information on his arrival date and ship, but his reported birth date and spouse, Kitty (Catherine Mulqueen), was consistent with other records.

I first locate Austin Carey in Manhattan, New York in the 1905 census - he lived on Washington Street as a boarder and dock laborer. His neighbors in the apartment included John Considine, future husband to his youngest sister, Catherine, and his older sister Mary and her husband Thomas Flynn and their young family. Austin married Catherine Veronica (Kitty) Mulqueen June 20, 1909 in Manhattan.

Catherine Mulqueen was the daughter of Patrick (1860-1907) and Mary Ann McGrath (1857-1915) Mulqueen. Patrick was the son of Sinon (1816-1888) and Margaret O'Gorman (1818-1898) Mulqueen. Mary Ann was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Catherine Kitson McGrath. I was lucky to find the marriage record of Thomas and Mary "Cath" Kitson and the birth record of their first child, Mary - thanks to Ancestry's online database Ireland, Catholic Parish Registers, 1655-1915.

Thomas Mc Grath (of Kilrush) m Cath Kitson (of Querin) 10 Feb 1856 at St. Senan's Church, Carrigaholt, Ireland, Carrigaholt and Kilballyowen Parish, Diocese of Killaloe, County Clare - witnessed by Martin Kitson and Bridget Blake.

Mary b. Jun 1857 to Thomas Mc Grath and Mary Kitson in Kilrush Parish, Diocese of Killaloe, County Clare. Sponsored by Martin Kitson and Bridget Kean.

I find Austin Carey still living on 584 Washington Street near sisters Mary and Catherine and their families in the 1915 NY State Census. By the time he completed his World War I Draft Card in 1918, Austin Carey was living at W. 109th St., New York City - as confirmed in the 1925 NY State Census. I had been unable to locate Austin in any US Federal Census records during his lifetime - I located his family after his 1935 death in the 1940 Census.

Harold H. Carey was the youngest son of Austin and Catherine Mulqueen Carey. Harry was born in Manhattan on Feb 5, 1926 and married Barbara J. Lyons in Manhattan in 1954. Barbara is the daughter of James and Irene Lyons.

MULQUEEN

The Mulqueen line has been a little easier to research because they immigrated to the US around the 1870's where records are more readily available. Much of my starting information comes from Mulqueen descendant, Pat Murphy - she had provided a lot of information and pictures online, as well as crucial DNA information that proves to be a niece to the focal descendant of this research, Harold Henry Carey \(1926-1999\).

According to Ancestry information, the earliest known ancestor for the Mulqueen branch of this research begins with John Mulqueeny of Kimaley, County Clare, Ireland (1770-1866) and his wife, Mary Madigan - I have no supporting documentation for this union.

I know of four sons for John and Mary: John, Patrick, Michael and Sinon. Patrick and Michael journeyed to Australia with their families. John and Sinon remained in County Clare until their deaths but many of their children ventured across the sea to New York. Most records in this research come from the descendants of John and Sinon – Sinon being the primary focus because he is the great-grandfather of Harold Henry Carey.

A crucial link from Ireland to the Mulqueen lines of New York is a cemetery vault inscription for Sinon Mulqueen (1808-1888) in the Kilrush, Molougha Graveyard...

Erected by John Mulqueen of New York in memory of his beloved father Sinon Mulqueen, Molougha who died July 5th 1888 aged 80 yrs. May his soul R.I.P. Amen

John and Mary Madigan's oldest son John (b. abt 1795) married Mary Cavanaugh (b. 1815) in Ireland – no marriage record yet. They had at least two children that made the voyage to America: Michael Cavanaugh (1844-1903) and Bridget (1846-1925) Mulqueen. Michael and Bridget married their cousins, children of their father's brother Sinon.

Sinon Mulqueen married Mary O'Gorman (1827-1898) in Ireland – I am still searching for their marriage record. At least four of Sinon's children – Bridget (1844-1910), John (1850-1904), Michael (1854-1923), and Patrick (1860-1907) ended up in New York City, NY.

Sinon and Mary's oldest daughter Bridget reports her arrival into the US as 1865 according to the 1900 Census (immigration record not located). Bridget's husband, Michael Cavanaugh Mulqueen, son of her uncle John and his wife Mary Cavanaugh, reported immigration to the US as 1870. I first locate Michael and Bridget in the 1880 Census in New York City. Michael's widowed mother, Mary Cavanaugh Mulqueen is in the city, too.

I find Sinon and Mary's son Michael in the 1880 Census living with his brother, John, and his wife Bridget. I believe I have Michael through the years after his marriage to Bridget Madigan in 1881 until his October 1923 death. There may be some cross-contamination in this branch, so I am still looking for documentation that I have the right Michael.

Sinon and Mary's son John married Bridget Mulqueen, his uncle John's daughter in 1876 Manhattan. I found John and Bridget in the 1880 Census but did not find the family again until the 1905 NY State census – shortly after John's 1904 death.

Sinon and Mary O'Gorman's son Patrick (1860-1907), the line of focus in this research, reported his immigration to the US in 1882 in the 1900 Census. In Aug 1888, Patrick became a naturalized citizen along with Peter Mulqueen – each vouched for the other in their paperwork - I do not know how the two were related at this time. Patrick was living in 584 Washington St. of Manhattan, NY with his wife Mary (McGrath) and daughters Catherine and Mary. Mary was the daughter of Thomas and Mary Catherine Kitson¹ McGrath. The Kittson's were from Querin, Carrigaholt Parish, County Clare, Ireland.

Patrick and Mary's daughter Catherine Veronica (Kitty) married Austin Carey in 1909 Manhattan. Austin was the son of William and Bridget Hanrahan Carey of Kilmacduane, County Clare, Ireland. The last child of Austin and Kitty was Harold Henry Carey (1926-1999)

¹ I found the name "Kitson" sometimes reported as Kitchen in Irish records. Mary also went by the name of "Kath".

Cooraclare, County Clare, Munster Province, Ireland

The village of Cooraclare is in the parish of Cooraclare (Kilmacduane) in the Roman Catholic Diocese of Killaloe. It is 10 kilometers (6.2 mi) from Kilrush on the road from Kilrush to Miltown Malbay. The old name for the parish is Kilmacduane, which was joined for a while to the parish of Kilmihil. In 1848 the two were again separated and Cooraclare took its present name. The parish includes the village of Cree, at times spelled Creegh.

The parish has two churches, St Senan's in Cooraclare and St Mary's in Cree. Cooraclare lies on the River Doonbeg.

³ John Mulqueen (1850-1904) is the brother of Bridget Mulqueen Mulqueen (age 36) – they are the children of Simon A. (1816-1888) and Mary O’Gorman Mulqueen.

⁴ Bridget Mulqueen Mulqueen (age 32) is sister of Michael C. Mulqueen (age 36) – they are the children of John and Mary Cavanaugh Mulqueen. Bridget was baptized 8 Nov 1846 at St Senan’s, Clare, Ireland; Parish Variant Kilrush; Diocese Killoe. Her parents were reports as John Mulqueeny and Mary Cavenagh.

⁵ I am pretty sure, but not positive that Mary Mulqueen (age 65) is Mary Cavanaugh Mulqueen – mother of Bridget and Michael C. Mulqueen.

⁶ Patrick Carey reported arrival to US in 1870 and that he was a naturalized citizen. Patrick married Bridget Hickey 28 Nov 1872 in Pittsfield, MA. Internet sources have his wife Bridget connected to New York Careys', but this could be in error.

⁷ James Hickey reported arrival to US in 1866.

⁸ John Francis Mulqueen is the son of Michael C. and Bridget Mulqueen.

⁹ Michael Mulqueen married Bridget Madigan in Manhattan 8 May 1881.

¹³ Margaret Corry Mulqueen of Clounenissane, County Clare married Peter in 1892 Manhattan – her parents were John and Ellen Carmody Corry. Margaret remarried to Lewis Tucker (b. 1872 of Torquay England) 23 May 1909 in Manhattan after Peter’s death 5 Mar 1907 in Manhattan.

¹⁴ Mary Mulqueen died 11 Jun 1912 in Manhattan as a single woman.

¹⁸ Austin is father of Harold Carey – Austin immigrated to the US in 1902 and lived in Manhattan, NY the rest of his life.

²⁰ William Mc Grath was born to Thomas and Ellen Horan Mc Grath 27 May 1867 in Galbally, Limerick, Ireland.

²⁸ 29 Dec 1868 Sinon and Kate O'Gormlan Carey had a daughter, Mary Margaret, baptized in Kilmacduane, Killaloe parish. This couple seems a little younger but needs to be checked out. On the same page, Honor Carey, daughter of Patt and Bridget Considine Carey of Cree was baptized 13 Dec 1868. (1868 date could be 1878)

²⁹ According to Ancestry, William Carey is son of Anthony Carey born 1828. William married Mary Creighton 8 Jul 1877 in Kilkee Chapel. William died 13 Dec 1939 in Kilrush, County Clare, Ire. Mary (1857-1900) does not appear in census – one son, Michael J. Carey (1888-1981) is residing in another household – enumerated with Mary Haugh (70) and Michael Haugh (30).

County and State of New York

Michael J. Mulqueen of 253 Broadway City and County of New York, being duly sworn as a witness in the above entitle matter, and examined on behalf of the applicant to prove said will says

I was acquainted with John Mulqueen now deceased; I knew the above names decedent for ten years before his death.

The subscription of the name of said decedent to the instrument now shown to me and offered for probate as his last will and testament and bearing date the 26th day of October in the year one thousand nine hundred was made by the decedent at the City of New York on the 26th of October in the year one thousand nine hundred in the presences of myself and Ward R. Jeffers the other subscribing witness.

At the time of such subscription John Mulqueen the said decedent declared the said instrument so subscribed by him to be his last will and testament and I thereupon signed my name as a witness at the end of the said instrument at the request of said decedent and in his presence.

The said decedent at the time of so executing said instrument was upwards of the age of twenty-one years, and in my opinion of sound mind, memory and understanding. Not under any restraint or in any respect incompetent to make a will.

I also saw said Ward R. Jeffers, the other subscribing witness, sign his name as witness at the end of said will, and know that he did so at the request and in the presence of said decedent.
