EMIGH and HORNING

Much of the information I have on my Emigh and Horning lines are still in the verification stage - I have data, but need documentation¹. From the information I have gathered from internet sources and census records the Emigh's are focused in the region of Dutchess County, New York after arriving into the United States from Germany. Early Emigh information can be obtained from a book titled, "Settlers of the Beekman Patent" Vol 4, by Frank Dougherty. Frank shows Johann Nicholas Emigh, born around 1680 -1685 in Dennenfel, Germany, as the earliest Emigh settler of the Dutchess County area known as "the Clove". Nicholas is reported to be the son of Hans Veltin Emich. Nicholas married Anna Catherina (Mueller) Miller on September 4, 1709 in London, England. Catherine was the daughter of Henrich Mueller/Miller of Staudrum. My family branch comes from Nicholas and Anna's son, Hans Jury (George) Emigh (1727 – 1810).

Hans (George) Emigh was born and raised in the Beekman Patent area of Dutchess County, New York. Things are not quite as clear at this point, he may have made a move to Greene County, NY where his son John G. Emigh was reportedly born in 1756.

John G. Emigh seems to have moved around some before I located him in the 1820 census in Berkshire County, Massachusetts (Egremont). John G. remained in Berkshire County until his 1824 death. His son George began his family in Berkshire County and eventually made a move to Norwich County in Oxford, Ontario, Canada. George died in Norwich in 1843 and his children ended up all around Canada and the United States. His son Samuel reportedly ended up in Michigan, William and Henry remained in Canada, John is said to have moved back to Egremont, MA and the son of my direct line, George, ended up in Pennsylvania by 1850.

It wasn't until the 1850 Federal Census when I first located George, living with Herbert and Eliza Hughes in Erie County, Pennsylvania. I am still trying to determine if Lucy Eliza Rider Hughes² is a sister to George Emigh.

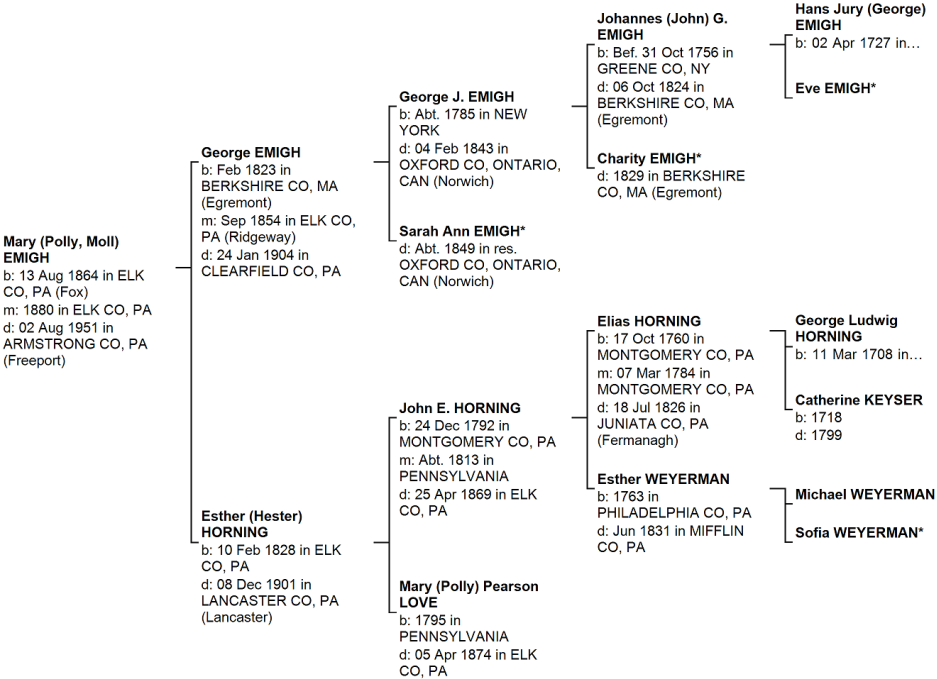

My Horning line was well established in the Pennsylvania in the early 1700's after the arrival of Georg Ludwig Horning from Germany in 1732. After a time in the Philadelphia region, the Horning's of this research settled in Montgomery County, PA for some time. According to internet sources, George Ludwig's son, Elias, is the Horning branch I follow from. My own documentation and research records begin with Elias's son, John Horning. John was born 24 December 1792 in Montgomery County, PA and died 25 April 1869 in Elk County, PA. From John's will, I know he spent some time in Northumberland County, PA. The 1800 index lists a Christian Horning of Northumberland - I do not know if there is a family link. There is a Christian Horting 1802 death recorded in Lancaster County, PA—coincidentally, the same year of death as George Ludwig Horning. I find John Horning with his daughter, Esther (possibly named after his mother, Esther Weyerman) in 1850 Elk County, PA. Esther Horning, the younger, married George Emigh in 1854. George and Esther Horning Emigh were the parents of my great-great grandmother, Mary Emigh, who married James Buchanan Mohney in 1880 Elk County, PA.

Terry Davis (Carolyn, Harry Mitchell, Gertrude Mohney, Mary Emigh, George Emigh)

² Lucy Eliza Hughes had two children before her marriage to Herbert Hughes – their last name was Rider – I still need to find out who she married first and what her name was before it was Rider.

⁷ Catherine Horning Miller, daughter of John and Polly Horning, appears to be a widow in this census.

⁸ Samuel Horning (Sep 6, 1771-Feb 1, 1855) married Martha Shannon (Feb 12, 1778-Apr 25, 1815) at St. James, Perkiomen, Montgomery Co, PA. Samuel is son of Michael and Hannah Roberts Horning.

⁹ The Derr family is linked to the Hornings somehow – most likely to Susannah, wife of David Horning.

²⁵ John Emigh's wife died May of 1900 – also, his birthdate not the same as reported in George's Civil War Pension record.

²⁶ There were more Horning families in nearby Clearfield County (Penfield, Huston TWP) that no family connection is verified; Amos, who moved to Cameron County, PA, and David. David's death record stated he was born 23 Jan 1819, in Montgomery County and died 29 Sep 1905, in Clearfield County - he married Susan D. Huntricker and had two known sons, Lewis and John.

²⁸ Gertrude Katherine Mohney was born on 24 Jul 1897, in Elk County, PA. Gertrude married Taylor Roy Mitchell in 1915 Clarion County. Taylor was a first generation American born citizen of English father, Wilson, and his wife, Minnie Carnahan Mitchell.

²⁹ I do not know where this particular Charles Emigh fits in – if he does at all.

Biographies

George Emigh

Father of Mary Emigh, youngest son of 5 and 3 sisters to George J. Emigh, grandson of Johannes (John) G. Emigh, great-grandson of Hans Jury/George Emigh, great-great-grandson of Johan Nicholas Emigh who emigrated from the Palatine area of Germany to New York in 1710. George's parents, George and Sarah, moved to Norwich, Oxford County, Ontario, Canada some time before 1820. It is assumed that the elder George left the United States due to his allegiance to the British at a time when post-revolution sentiment was running strong against Loyalists (about the time of the War of 1812). The Emigh's joined a Quaker settlement that was established between 1811 – 1820 by Peter Lossing and Peter DeLong. Peter Lossing was the grandson of the Peter Lossing who married Anna Maria Emigh, sister of Hans Jury/George.

A number of Emighs signed Canadian citizenship documents. It is believed, but not confirmed, that young George signed an oath of Canadian citizenship on Jan. 19, 1842 – George J., Samuel and John had signed their names for citizenship in 1840. George J. Emigh died at Norwich Feb. 4, 1843.

Around 1849/50 the elder Georges children scattered (believed to be around the time of the death of their mother, Sarah). William and Henry remained in Canada, Samuel believed to move to Michigan, John believed to return to Egremont, MA, and the younger George was in Erie County, PA by 1850.

George was living with Herbert and Eliza Hughs (and Eliza's two children from a previous marriage) in 1850. A family relationship has not been made at this time.

George purchased a parcel of land from John Green and wife on Nov. 29, 1851. The land was situated in Centerville, now known as Kersey, Elk County, PA (Deed Book C, page 412, Elk County). In 1852 he sole the property to Townsend Fall (Deed Book C, pages 415 and 416, Elk County).

George married Esther Horning, daughter of John and Polly Horning, in Sept 1854 Elk County, PA.³⁴

On September 5, 1864, George enlisted as a Private in Co. C, 211th Regiment of the Pennsylvania Infantry. His military record indicated he was 42 years old at the time of his enlistment, that he was born in Massachusetts, was 5 feet 8 inches tall, fair complexion, brown hair, and blue eyes. He enlisted for one year and was mustered out June 2, 1865 at Alexandria, Va.

George and family moved to Penfield, Huston TWP, Clearfield County, PA around Spring 1886. He purchased land in Penfield from Evo DeMay, on April 12, 1886, and from Lucien Bird, on August 31, 1886. He died in Penfield on January 14, 1904. He and his wife Esther Horning Emigh are buried in Bundy Cemetery.

Much of the information on George's parentage and early years has been filled in by strong circumstantial supposition. Very little factual data, prior to 1850, has been acquired to date.

Mary (Polly) Emigh

Christening records verify given name. Mary was called "Moll" by some family members. Mary was known to be illiterate her whole life. She enjoyed having books read to her and she was also an ardent listener to the Lone Ranger series on radio, and was quite fond of western movies. She was also noted for smoking cutty pipe tobacco in a corn cob pipe. She was a great baker and at one point in time kept a tamed black snake for a pet. After her husband's death in 1930, she lived with different children. At the time of the 1936 flood, she resided in Freeport, Armstrong, Co., PA with her son James and family. The story is told that she refused to leave the house when the flooding was going on – two grandsons picked her up in her rocking chair and put her on a row boat to get to higher ground. In another story, while residing with her son, James, Mary was playing cards. In a game she thought she had won, when she found out she lost she started walking to Saxonburg (a town 12 miles away in Butler County) to a home for the elderly. James picked her up and declared to the family that they would not play cards anymore. In her later years Mary's hair was worn below her knees.

Andrew J. Barnhart

Andrew Barnhart was born in Chatauqua county, New York, in 1829. He made his home with his father, Peter Barnhart, till he was twenty years of age, when he purchased a tannery and run it two years. Seized with the western fever, which is always prevalent in the east, he sold out and went to Michigan and leased a farm for two years. The state of his wife's health induced him to return. Mrs. Barnhart died soon afterwards. One year after this event, he purchased a tannery in his native town and continued his first business about two years, when he sold out and returned to Michigan and engaged in the boot and shoe business in Schoolcraft. This he continued fourteen years, when, selling his stock, he purchased a farm in the vicinity and moved upon it one year, and when he sold, returned to Schoolcraft, where he remained two years. In April, 1868, he came to Buchanan county and purchased a half interest with his brother, in a farm of three hundred and sixty-five acres, in Summer township, with a view of going into the dairy business. But at the expiration of five years, finding it not sufficiently remunerative for the amount of time and money invested, he rented the farm and moved to Independence. Here, after about one year spent in prospecting, he engaged in the grocery business, in which he still continues. In the year 1878 he purchased a half interest in a creamery in Fairbank township, which he still owns. In 1880 he added four more creameries, one being situated in Perry township, two in Black Hawk county, and one in Independence. The ones in Fairbank township. and in this city are run by six horse power steam engines; the others run by tread horse power. He runs eighteen teams, besides a great deal of hauling done by outsiders, and gives employment to thirty men. He makes as high as three thousand pounds of butter daily through the best portions of the season. He ships principally to New York city, but frequently to Philadelphia.

Mr. Barnhart married his first wife in New York State in the year 1851. Her maiden name was Theresa Cheney, who died in 1854. He married his second wife, Miss Alice E. Rider, in New York State, in 1856. They have two children - Maurice W., born July 9, 1863; now engaged with his father in the creamery business in Independence. Frenella I., born March 5, 1868. Mr. Barnhart, affable as a dealer, has a kind word for every one and the highest respect of all his acquaintances. Politically, he is a Greenbacker, and was one of seven men who first represented that party in this township.³⁵

³⁵ A.J. Barnhart – son-in-law of Herbert and Lucy Eliza Rider Hughs (married to daughter Lucy Rider). Biography from "History of Buchanan County, Iowa 1842 to 1881", BIOGRAPHICAL SKETCHES, page 272.

John Clark Emigh

John Clark Emigh is buried at Oak Creek Cemetery in Raymond, Lancaster Co., Nebraska. He was the first U.S. Mail carrier out of Raymond, Nebraska. He moved there in 1895. It should be noted that John Clark Emigh was born on February 11, 1848 but his marriage affidavit dated March 3, 1872 shows him to be 22 years of age which would indicate that he was born in 1850 or his age as recorded on that document is in error. The following is an article from the Fresno (California) Bee dated February 11, 1944.

FRESNAN, 96, RECALLS LINCOLN'S DEATH AS SADDEST DAY

John C. Emigh, 3436 Madison Avenue, retired farmer who remembers the day Abraham Lincoln's assassination as the saddest in his life, celebrated his ninety sixth birthday anniversary today with his usual open house for friends and relatives. He turned from chatting with guests to listening on the radio whenever war bulletins were broadcast; however, with three grandsons in the armed services, Emigh is following this conflict with as much interest as the Civil War of his youth which gave him the opportunity to see the martyred president. "I was a boy of 14, working on the farm near Johnstown, Pennsylvania, when Lincoln came to speak in a little town near us," Emigh said. I remember it seemed to me then one the most wonderful speeches I ever heard. That tall, rugged man looked to me like a strong old farmer, and I liked him. I remember he said if the Confederates would come back to the Union they could keep their slaves but they did not and later he freed the slaves. The day we heard of his death I still remember as the saddest day of my life. My father told me and turned away and could not talk for awhile. Finally, he said he would stop working for that day because he was feeling too badly to go on." Emigh recalls many days sometimes passed before his farmer neighbors in Pennsylvania obtained details of Civil War conflicts, a far cry from the almost instantaneous radio and newspaper coverage of today. "This is my fourth big war, not counting the Indian fights," he said. "But I do not think it will last much longer. I think in a short time the Axis is going to go pop." His grandsons in the service are Private First Class John Barksdale, infantry, stationed in the Pacific and John A. Emigh, naval electrical instructor, now in San Diego (California), both of Fresno, and Corporal Norris Emigh, infantry, who is fighting in Italy. Retired a quarter of a century ago, after 70 strenuous years as a farmer, homesteader, restaurateur, mail carrier and founder of Webster, Kansas, Emigh now Spends his Winters in Fresno with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Hatler, and his Summers with his son, John Emigh of Selden, Kansas. "Travel" he said, "is my hobby, and I indulge it whenever I have the opportunity without being unpatriotic and crowding our soldiers and sailors out of a place. And I do not need any one to go along with me either." Emigh recalls that as a middle western homesteader he twice shook the hand of President Theodore Roosevelt, once when Teddy was campaigning for the vice presidency in 1900 and when he sought the White House on the Bull Moose ticket in 1912. However, he does not consider either Lincoln or Roosevelt the best speaker he ever heard. That palm he gives to a man, "almost a neighbor," whom he met frequently during a quarter of a century in Nebraska and Kansas but for whom he never voted. "There never was any one on a platform like William Jennings Bryan," he said. The aged Fresnan said he never has failed to vote in a presidential election and this year will be no exception.

Samuel S. Horning (1826-?)

HORNING, SAMUEL S., farmer, Jefferson township, was born in Mifin township, Dauphin county, Pa., March 1, 1826. Michael, the great-grandfather, was a native of England. Samuel, the grandfather, was a native of Montgomery county, where he was engaged in farming. James B., the father, was also born in Montgomery county, and followed farming. He married Sarah A. Miller, of Germantown, Montgomery county. Their children are: Ann Eliza; Samuel K Mary A., deceased; B. Franklin; John M., deceased; Lewis, and Martha, deceased. The father was a Democrat. He and his wife were members of the Lutheran church. He died on the homestead, and his wife died at Monterey, Berks county.

Samuel S. received a fair education in the schools of Upper Providence township, Montgomery county. He learned the milling business in Chester county, where he spent several years in the grist mill, after which he operated a mill in Lykens Valley for three years, and also worked on the canal. In 1854 he bought a farm in Halifax township, which he improved and cultivated for three years, and then sold it. He then bought one hundred and forty acres of land in Jefferson township, which he cleared and on which he made valuable improvements, and engaged in farming and stock raising. He attends the Lykens markets. He was married, in Powell's Valley, Halifax township, in 1856, to Marv J. Baskin, of that township, daughter of Oliver and Eliza (Smith) Baskin, the father a well-known resident of the county, operating a farm, woolen factory and saw and grist mill. They had two children: Oliver B., manages the homestead, in the postoffice at Lykens, formerly a bookkeeper at Philadelphia, an estimable gentleman, not married, taking care of his parents in their old age; Annie E., single, at home, a lady of culture and refinement, much interested in Sunday-school and church work. Mr. Horning is a Democrat in politics; was a tax collector and school teacher, and always much interested in educational matters. The family attend the Methodist Episcopal church.³⁶

George Emigh (b. 1818)

EMIGH-SMITH HOUSE: The EMIGH family came from Germany to Dutchess County, New York State, early in 1800 and to the Norwich area some time later, settling on Lot 20, Concession 1 of the Township of Norwich in 1820. GEORGE EMIGH, who was born in 1818 and his wife ELIZABETH, bought 100 acres of lot 21, concession 1, North Norwich Township on December 14th, 1866 from PRESERVED THOMPSON, and in 1871 sold it to their son, MARTIN EMIGH. About 1876 MARTIN EMIGH built the present white brick one and a half storey house. MARTIN EMIGH was a noted bee keeper and the "honey house" where the extracting was done was further back in the orchard. The present {late 1970's} owners, RALPH M. SMITH, HAROLD SMITH and EVELYN SMITH bought the 100 acres from the VERNON EMIGH ESTATE in 1976.

Jerry Miller adds his transcription of the Cherry Lane Church of the Brethren Cemetery in Bedford Co. PA and Donna Arnold contributes photos and a Family Group Sheet for Henry Horning (1798-1872).

William Old, Jr., of the third generation, married Elizabeth Nagel as above stated and had the following children:

1. Louisa, born March 9th, 1799; married Thomas Mills.
2. Caroline, born February 7th, 1801 married Henry Morris, of Philadelphia.
3. Morgan, born August, 1803; died at Richmond, Indiana; left issue.
4. Elizabeth, born 1803; married Dr. Hamilton Witman, of Reading. Among the descendants of this union are Mrs. Elizabeth M. Luther, of Pottsville; her son, R. C. Luther, is chief engineer of the Phila. & Reading R. E.
5. Rebecca, born September 7th, 1808, at Ephrata; married Dr. Louis Horning, of Montgomery County. The result of this union was one daughter, Martlia M., still living. Dr. Horning died in 1837, and his widow subsequently married Jerome K. Boyer, of Harrisburg, in 1841. This union resulted in four children, George G., Jerome K., Annie L. and Alvala H. All of these children are now living except Jerome K., who died in 1860. Mr. Boyer died in 1880. Mrs. Boyer died on May 21st, 1896.

CHAPTER XV.
FERMANAGH TOWNSHIP

On the 18th of October, 1798, he sold "Armagh" to Elias Horning, a native of Montgomery County, whose father, John Horning, was a German, who had purchased a large tract of land in Montgomery and Bucks Counties. He had thirteen children, who, with one exception, settled on their father's land. The father lived to the age of one hundred and twenty years. Elias married there, and lived on the homestead farm, in Bucks County, until after the death of his father. After receiving the share of his father's estate, he migrated to the Juniata River, and purchased the property mentioned above and settled upon it.

Re John Horning, son of Ludwig and Katherine Keyser. B.9/5/1755 D.12/8/1803. Married Elizabeth Hall B.8/16/1761 D. 10/16/1824. Had 3 girls 5 boys. Mary married Abraham Detweiler 12/11/1810, Catherine married Michael Steerley, Nancy married Sam Durstine 1/8/1811. Boys were John, Henry, Isaac, Lewis and Samuel. No info their births, deaths or marriages.

My ggg-grandfather was Henry Horning, 17 Oct 1798 - 12 Nov 1872. He married Hannah Eisenberg in 1820. I don't have a place of birth for Henry, but the Eisenbergs were from Limerick Twp, Montgomery Co, PA, so this may be the correct line. Their children were

Hannah 1821-1919

John E. 1823-1869

Mary E. 1825-1847

Elizabeth 1827-1912

Elder William W. 1928-1915

Samuel E. 1831-1923

David P. 1834-1909

Sarah Rebecca 1835-1872

Henry E. 1838-1918.

I am descended from Harriet who married Samuel E. Haldeman (1820-1914) in 1842.

I am a Horning descendant. There are a few John Hornings, and I don't have b/d's for them all. Henry Horning - there is only one on my tree.- son of John Horning who was b.Sept 5,1755 m. Elizabeth Hall.

Henrys siblings -Jacob, b. May 27,1781, Ludwich, Catharine, John, Mary, Nancy, William, Isaac, and Samuel.nothing else on this John Horning or Henry.

time frame is right. also have found some of this Horning line in Juniata Co Pa.

Looking for information on the Horning's from PA. My GGGGrandmother was Elizabeth Horning, married to Dr. C. R. Earley. She was born in Sinnemahoning, PA in 1826. She died in 1918 and her obituary lists her parents as John & Mary Love Horning. It also lists her only living brother as Elias (I believe his real name was James Elias). I have several pictures of her from the 1860's that I recovered when my grandfather died. I would love any additional information on her family. I was always told that they were some of the earliest settlers in the area.

Emigh Family in Massachusetts

Posted on Genforum by Amy Atwood 22 Feb, 2000

Louis, This is just a small part of the info. that I have on the Emigh (+variations) family. George J. Emigh, b. 1780-1785, probably in Dutchess Co., NY, d. 2-4-1843, Norwich, Ontario, (my great-great-great-grandfather) (son of John (Johann), (son of George), (son of Nicholas). John (Johann) was m. to Charity (?). His son, George J. was m. to Sarah Ann (?). George J. Emigh's siblings were William Emigh (my great-great-great grandfather), Samuel Emigh (went to Michigan per 1850 census) John Emigh m. Harriet Forster (went back to Egremont Mass) Henry Emigh, George (the Younger) and three females (no names). I would like to find out what Charity's maiden name was, also William's wife Sarah Ann (possibly Topham?) any help will be appreciated and I will share any info. that I have. Thanks again, please help if you can.

Amy, I have the names of George J. Emigh's sisters as Elizabeth, Eleanor, and Mary. I have Eleanor b. 24 September 1795. I don't have maiden names for either Charity or Sarah Ann. I do have the Father of John (Johann) and back to Germany. I will share any info that I have also. Lou⁴⁰

Dear Terry:

I found that quite fascinating about what your discovering on Wilson Mitchell. Years ago, before I learned about what part of England he came from, I noticed the biography in the Clarion County, Pa book, and didn't think much then other than that sometimes when people came to this country, if relatives were already established here, they went to where they resided first. Then I forgot about that biography. I think that Thomas Mitchell may be his uncle to do to the fact that when Wilson Mitchell, arrived, if he had no family already here, why Clarion County, Pa. and not New York or Chicago? I hope you are able to find evidence that Thomas is his uncle.

I've made some contact on searching the ancestry of our John Horning. Linton H. Love from Ontario, has a fascinating website on the descendants of Ludwig Horning (who arrived in Philadelphia, Pa in 1732). he so far has 801 descendants listed, he has more info, but not all is listed yet. On his site there are several John Hornings who maybe are John Horning. These John's were born in Pa. in the 1790's to. He could only guide me, for what was on hand with him. When he returns to Ontario in May (he is in florida for the winter) he is going to check into helping us out. All his information is back in ontario. He has researched more on the lines that settled in Canada, and would like to rsearch more on those that remained in Pa. He believes that the most likely canidate for our John Horning is: a John Horning, b. Providence Township, Montgomery County, Pa., the son of John Horning (1755 - 1803) and Elizabeth Haal (various spellings) (1761-1824). I was in Elk County , Pa. today and photographed the cemetery. If John and polly horning have headstones I think they fell over and lay flat on the ground under the snow. I will go back and investigate when the snow melts. At the library in Ridgway I found the following: I will send you photocopies from the book it's from.

Charles Richard Earley, M. D., b. May 1, 1823 Scio, New York, d. May 16, 1898, buried pine grove cemetery, with wife. Married 1849 to Elizabeth Horning of Fox Township. According to the biography he was a remarkable man, active in medicine, politics and bussiness, his whole life. During the Civil War he raised a company of volunteers "the Kersey Rifles", and was a surgeon during the Civil War.

Your Cousin, Pat. below is Horing Website address also included Earleyville cemetery photo's.

⁴⁰ This is the line of George Emigh who died in Clearfield Co, PA in 1904. Several census reports showed the birth location of George as Mass. – while others showed NY. Eliza Hughs of the 1850 Erie Co, PA census (who George is living with) could be the sister, Elizabeth, mentioned in this response to Amy Atwood's Genforum entry.

Follow up on Herbert and Eliza Hughes

I recorded the following to determine if there is a family connection between Eliza Hughes and George Emigh (see 1850 Erie County, PA census). I tracked Herbert and Eliza Hughes in the 1860, 1870 and 1880 census reports. Based on the census records and an autobiography I found on her son-in-law, Andrew J. Barnhart I learned a few things about Eliza - but not if she was George Emigh's sister. I discovered that Lucy Eliza Hughes was previously married to a man named Mr. Rider and had at least two children from him, Mary Alice Rider and Silas Rider (both born in NY). I am still trying to verify if Lucy Eliza Rider Hughes was an EMIGH before her first marriage.

Will of Ludwig Horning (1707-1802)

Montgomery County Will Book 2, Page 266 Will No.2844

Written 30 Jan,1797 Proved 10 June 1802

Be it remembered that I, Ludwick Horning of Perkioming and Skippack Township in the County of Montgomery in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Carpenter, Being far advanced in years, but of sound disposing mind and memory, and calling to mind the Mortality of my body, and that it is appointed for all men once to Die, do think fit this thirtyeth day of January in the year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and ninety seven to make and ordain this my last Will and Testament, which I do in the following manner and form.

In the first place it is my will and I do order, that all my just debts and funeral expenses be duly paid and satisfied by my hereinafter named executors.

2nd, I give and bequeath to my beloved wife Catherine the free and uninterrupted use, liberty, privilege and support excepted and reserved in the Deed of Conveyance given to my son John bearing even date here with, during her natural life. I also give her our best bed and all the bedding thereto belonging, a Walnut cloths press, two chests, which stand in our Lodging room, the dressor with all belonging to me, thereon, with such other kitchen furniture and household goods as she shall want or have occasion for. I also give her the use of the sum of three hundred and fifty pounds in Gold and Silver money at its present value, which sum is to remain in her hands in order to supply her necessary occasions, with free liberty of using as much of the principal as she may stand in need of, all which is to be in lieu of her Dower out of my Estate and it is my will that whatsoever of her above mentioned goods and monies shall be remaining at her death, shall be equally divided among my seven children hereafter named, excepting the sum of fifty pounds and her bed and bedding which she may dispose of at her pleasure.

3rd, And whereas my son Peter Horning has heretofore received from me a considerable sum of money, I do hereby give and bequeath to him one Shilling Sterling in full of his share out of my Estate.

4th, Whereas my sons Michael, Eli and Jacob have heretofore received the sum of three hundred pounds each from me agreeable to their respective receipts lodged among my papers they are therefore upon a equal footing with their brothers, and are entitled only to their respective share of the residue thereafter mentiond.

5th, Whereas I have conveyed my plantation whereon I at present dwell unto my son John Horning at the rate and value of eight hundred pounds, two hundred pounds part thereof I have received three hundred pounds another part thereof I give and bequeath to him, to make him equal with his brothers, and the remaing three hundred pounds for which he has given his Bond to me is to be paid to my three daughters hereafter named in equal shares. I do further give and bequeath to my son John my clock, and case, windmill, cutting box all my carpenter tools, cross cut and hand saw and drawing knife. 6th I give and bequeath to my daughter Margaret Creater. or her heirs and assigns the sum of one hundred pounds part of the above mention three hundred pounds, to be paid to her or her heirs and assigns immediately after my decease, by my exectors hereafter named which with fifty pounds heretofore received at her marriage is to be her share, except the residue.

7th, I give and bequeath to my daughter Barbara Hall her heirs and assigns one hundred pounds another part of said three hundred pounds payable immediately after my decease by my executors hereafter named, which with fifty pounds heretofore received is to be her share, except the residue.

8th, I give and bequeath to my daughter Elisabeth Heffelfinger her heirs and assigns, one hundred pounds the remainder of said three hundred pounds, payable immediately after my decease, by my executors hereafter named, which with fifty pounds heretofore received is to be her share, except the residue.

North of Gardner Hollow

LOCATION: A stone's throw northwest of the dwelling house of Charles Ferris a half-mile north of Gardner Hollow on the road to Verbank.

INSCRIPTIONS: 25 in number. Copied November 10, 1923, by J. Wilson Poucher, M. D., Miss Violet Barbour, Miss Margaret DeM. Brown, Miss Caroline Ferris and Miss Helen W. Reynolds.

REMARKS: This is a large walled enclosure, containing many unmarked field-stones beside the marked stones listed below. Through the enclosure runs a property-line (indicated by cobbles). North of this line the property owner has removed headstones from the enclosure and used them in fences, horse-block, etc. South of the line the owner is Mrs. Amos D. Baker. Mrs. Baker has a tradition that this burial-ground belonged originally to a Lutheran Church, and she states that her father (John Williams, born 1803) attended services in the building in his boyhood, the building being torn down approximately 1815-1820. The several histories of Dutchess County make no mention of a Lutheran Church in Beckman but at page 233 of liber 2 of deeds in the office of the County Clerk is recorded a deed, dated September 10, 1749, whereby Colonel Henry Beckman made a gift of site, church building and burial-ground at this very spot for a Lutheran congregation. Further information about this congregation might possibly be gleaned from records of the Lutherans in New York City.

Tracking the Horning Line

The following information was shared on the internet site of Linton Love, at <http://freepages.genealogy.rootsweb.com/~linlove/>, email address love2057@rogers.com. The line of Ludwig Horning has a lot of potential as a link to John Horning (b. 1792). One of John's sons has the middle name of Elias, and one of his daughters was named Esther—this circumstantial link has me pursuing anything I can find on Elias (1761–1826 Juniata Co., PA) and Esther Weyerman Horning; Elias was a son of Ludwig Horning and is reported to have had a son named John for whom I have no other information.

Ludwich Horning

This is an attempt to trace ALL descendants of our ancestor LUDWIG HORNING who arrived in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, on 11 August 1732. In reading this you can be sure of two things. The first is there will be mistakes. These will be due to my carelessness or misinterpretation of records or they may be due to some of the conflicting information in the old files of the genealogists who were doing their research in the late 19th or early 20th centuries. The other fact is there will be many Horning relations who are not in this record as yet. .

Unlike the method used in tracing one's own direct line, I did not have access to immediate past family history for many of these families. It was difficult to trace the families who started to spread out of Pennsylvania to other states except my own line who came to Canada. Luckily some very kind researchers among the Horning relations were able to supply information which is now in this database. The following persons, listed in no particular order, supplied information on their family lines for which I owe them many thanks..

Dorothy McCabe of Vancouver, B.C.
Gloria Oakes of Ancaster, Ontario
Donald Horning of Collingwood, Ontario
Paul Kuzyk of Hamilton, Ontario
Vona Smith of Vancouver, B.C
Charlotte Moore of Millgrove, Ontario
Rosanna Davis of Hacienda Heights, California.
Jamie Smith of Ravena, New York
Brad Murphy of Kitchener, Ontario

If you find your family is not included but have information that would help to extend these files, I would greatly appreciate if you would get in touch with me. If you see mention of deeds, wills, maps or photographs that I have in my files, I would be pleased to send you copies with no obligation on your part, if you would make the request.

As of 15 December 2004, there are 1,642 Horning related individuals in this database. I have a list of about 50 more who I believe are in our line but I have not been able to connect them to a family as yet. I sincerely hope you will find some of your ancestors in these pages, and I especially hope you will find some new and interesting details about them. Please don't hesitate to get in touch if you have questions or corrections. Maybe we can fill in some of the blanks with your help.

KATHELINE KEYSER died on 7 March 1799 and LUDWIG HORNING died 4 June 1802. Both LUDWIG HORNING and his wife KATHELINE KEYSER are buried in the old section of the MENNONITE CEMETERY at the Lower Skippack Meeting House on Meeting House Road south-west of Skippack. Their tombstones are still in quite good shape and can be seen in row 7. Photographs of the tombstones, cemetery and Meeting House taken in 1994 are in my files. The Lower Skippack Mennonite Meeting House was first built in 1725 and was the second in Pennsylvania. The first was the Meeting House in Germantown. The present Meeting House at Lower Skippack is the third on the site.⁴⁷
