DESCENDANTS OF GUY GRIGSBY .....	52

GRIGSBY

The following is a collection of information from a number of sources – throughout this text the sources are identified in footnotes. The earliest Grigsby in my records begins with Guy Grigsby born in 1564 and married to Joanna King on June 1, 1600. Guy Grigsby was the 4th great-grandfather of Thomas Collison Grigsby (b. 1780 Kent County, England), the first Grigsby ancestor of my direct lineage to come to the United States. Much of the very early Grigsby data was shared on the Internet by Grigsby researchers, Larry and Mina Ostergard<sup>1</sup>, and Barbara Daily<sup>2</sup>, who follow from James Grigsby (1806 – 1874), brother to Samuel (1816 – 1855) and William Grigsby (1809 – 1886)—sons of Thomas Grigsby. According to the 1923 biographical record of Susan Grigsby Avery, grand-daughter of Thomas, at least four sons (John, James, William, Samuel) and one unmarried daughter came to America at varying times between 1836 and 1845. I located an immigration record for Samuel and Mary Ann Evenden Grigsby where they arrived in the port of NY, NY on May 30, 1842 – leaving nearly immediately from London England on the ship “Philadelphia” after their Apr 1842 marriage. They had a daughter, Mary, who died on the journey. I lost track of Thomas and Francis’ daughter, Hannah after the 1870 census where she was living in the Lyons, Wayne County “Poor House Asylum” with her illegitimate daughter, Ann. Most of the children of Thomas were from his first wife, Anne Worger. I still need to locate a marriage record for Thomas’ second wife, Frances. Thomas and his wife, Francis, are still in Kent County, England in 1841—as well as two children living at home; John (age 20) and Hannah (age 19). Thomas (died 1843) and Frances (died 1853) are buried in Pleasant View Cemetery, Williamson, Wayne County, New York. By 1855, the sons of Thomas Grigsby: James, William, and Samuel moved to McKean County, Pennsylvania.

James Grigsby, oldest of the three remaining Thomas Grigsby sons, is first found in 1840 Wayne County, New York with his brother William. By 1850, James and family were living in Friendship, Allegany County, NY. In 1860, he lived in McKean County, PA and later moved to Eau Claire County, Wisconsin where he is found in the 1870 census. James died in Eau Claire County in 1874.

In 1840 and 1850, William Grigsby is living in Wayne County, NY. By 1860, he and his family were living in McKean County, PA. William had at least six daughters and three sons by his wife, Elizabeth Tassel. He and his wife remained in Port Allegheny, McKean County until their 1886 deaths—some of their progeny still live in the area to this day.

Samuel and Mary Evenden Grigsby are first located in the 1850 Wayne County, NY census. About 1854/5 the Samuel Grigsby family moved to McKean County, PA where Samuel died in April 1855. According to the 1897 obituary of his wife, Mary Evenden Grigsby Burdick, the cause of his 1855 death was a result of a harsh winter of the region. Samuel and Mary had five children that were born in Wayne County, NY: John (1843-1913), William (1845-1902), Charles (1847-1934), Pheobe (1849-bet 1920 and 1930), and Ella (1851- aft 1913). I have tracked all their children in the census records up until the time of their deaths. Pheobe was the only one I could not locate in the 1860 census. In 1860, John Grigsby was living with his mother and new husband, Roland Burdick; William was living with Joseph Morse (sheriff of McKean County); Charles was living in neighboring Potter County, PA with Samuel and Pamela Thompson; and Ella was living in the household of Daniel Gallup, whose nephew, Wilson Gallup, was later to become Ella’s husband. I was unable to make any relative connections to the families that took the Samuel Grigsby children into their households after their father’s death. Mary Evenden Grigsby married Roland

Burdick in 1858. Roland Burdick was 30 years older than Mary and died in 1873. Mary Grigsby Burdick died in 1897.

For many years I had believed that both Samuel and Mary Evenden Grigsby had died shortly after moving to McKean County, PA. This did not get cleared up until I actually visited McKean County and located an obituary for their son, William. William's 1902 obituary listed his other four siblings and their location at the time of his death along with a half-brother, Anson Burdick. The obituary was an excellent source for pointing me to the places I needed to look to locate his brothers and sisters and learn more about his mother. William and his wife, Mahala Keller Grigsby are buried in Rose Hill Cemetery, in the town of Smethport, PA.

Another roadblock I had on the Grigsby line was in trying to find out about my third great-grandfather, Charles Edward Grigsby, son of Samuel and Mary Evenden Grigsby. My research discoveries began with the data from a submission to LDS Ancestral Files made by Louis Founds. Louis descended from the union of Maxwell Founds and Bertha May Grigsby. Bertha was the daughter of Charles and grand-daughter of Samuel. Louis provided all the birth information on the children of Charles and Annie Elizabeth Ailstock Grigsby. Annie was the daughter of Andrew and Pheobe Ailstock. Andrew Ailstock was the grandson of Absalom Ailstock, a prominent "colored freeman" who settled in Louisa County, VA and was a veteran of the Revolutionary War. The Ailstock line still requires more verifying documentation.

From an 1890 Millboro, Bath County, VA veterans' census, Charles Grigsby reported military service as a Seaman on the vessel "Springfield" during the Civil War. He enlisted September 5, 1864 and was discharged June 15, 1865 (he reportedly sustained a knee injury during his service time). Records of his reported military service still need to be obtained.

Charles and Annie were married in Rockbridge County Virginia in January 1869 and had 12 kids. They lived in Millboro, Bath County, Virginia up until the 1910 census – where I could not find out what happened to them for a number of years. It wasn't until I plugged Charles name into the internet for the hundredth time that I came across an Idaho death notice. This came as a surprise to me, especially since I had lived just down the road from Bingham County, Idaho for three years. In 1913, Annie E. Ailstock Grigsby died in Basalt, Bingham County, Idaho. In 1920, I located Charles in the household of his daughter, Ellen Grigsby Ellis, in Fayette County, West Virginia – Fayette County was where a number of Charles and Annie's children ended up. The difficulty in finding Charles in 1920 was because his Grigsby name was not listed (he was shown with the Ellis last name). By 1930, Charles was living with his youngest son, Herbert, in Los Angeles, California – Charles was indexed under the name, Charles H. "Grisby". Sometime after the 1930 census Charles returned to Bingham County, Idaho, where his daughter Bertha Grigsby Founds was living. He died in Shelley, Idaho on April 17, 1934.

Charles Grigsby's oldest son, Sanford Samuel Grigsby was my second great-grandfather. He was born October 22, 1872 in Bath County, Virginia. Sanford married Mary Susan Ennis in 1897 Fayette County, W. VA. Susan was the daughter of James and Hulda Kincaid Ennis. Susan died in 1902 Kanawha County, W. VA from childbirth complications. Sanford and Susan's surviving children were Forrest and Ralph Grigsby. Sanford remarried to Julia Ann Hall in June of 1903 – and had eight more children.

Forrest Grigsby was my great-grandfather (1898-1953).

James Grigsby

My father James Grigsby was born in Kent Co. Eng near Maidstone. I think he was from a family of six sons and two daughters. His occupation was mostly working on farms of wealthy land owners. He first married Elizabeth Collison and she died after a few years leaving a daughter, Ann. His second wife Martha Patterson was my mother. She was born in Kent, Eng and was from a family of six daughters and two sons. This family was very religious and thought much of their social standing. At one time they were well-to-do, but had some reverses and lost their property. One son Frank Patterson was a preacher. My father James Grigsby came to this country with his family about 1836-40 ending in Wayne Co. NY. One of his brothers was living there at the time. His parents and two brothers came later as did a maiden sister. His sister and brother John died suddenly a few years after coming here. His mother and brother Samuel lived a number of years, but Samuel died as a young man leaving a family of three boys and two girls in PA<sup>5</sup>. My mother Martha died in Wayne Co. She was buried in the cemetery in Williamson, a small country town, near where we lived. She left six children - the eldest was George, not quite ten years of age and the youngest was an infant.<sup>6</sup>

Wilson O. Gallup

W.O. Gallup, farmer, P.O. Norwich, was born in Norwich Township, McKean Co., Penn., June 28, 1851, the elder of two sons born to Nathaniel C. and Alcena (Derby) Gallup, natives of Pennsylvania, born in 1814, and who settled upon the farm now owned by their son, H.H. Gallup. W. O. Gallup received his education in the common schools of his native township, and has always been engaged in farming. He was married, in February, 1875, to Miss Ella Grigsby, born in December, 1851, a daughter of Samuel and Mary (Evendon) Grigsby, natives of England. Mr. and Mrs. Gallup are the parents of four children, viz.: Cora A., Bertha M., Milford H. and Susan R. Mr. Gallup takes an active interest in the affairs of the township, and has held various local offices.<sup>7</sup>

G. W. Burdick

G. W. BURDICK, farmer, P.O. Norwich, a son of Rowland and Alvira (Webb) Burdick, natives of New York State, was born in Norwich township, McKean Co., Penn., April 17, 1820. He spent his boyhood days on the farm with his parents, and August 3, 1842, he married Miss Sarah H., a daughter of G.W. and Elizabeth (Rose) Griswold, natives of Vermont, who were among the early settlers of Smethport, Penn. Mr. Burdick has been identified among the many lumberman of McKean county, is also an enterprising farmer, and was postmaster under President Tyler. His son, W.P. Burdick, was born November 27, 1859, and is now a practicing physician in DuBois, Clearfield Co., Penn. G.W. Burdick's grandfather was a Baptist minister. His father and mother and six brothers and one sister belonged to the Baptist Church, and one sister joined the Methodist Church. Six brothers and one sister are still living.

<sup>5</sup> This early death of Samuel is a major mystery to solve. What happened and when? His wife, Mary, remarried some time between 1855 and 1860. Mary had two more children from Roland Burdick, who was more than 30 years older than her. I was able to locate all three sons and one daughter (Ella) in the 1860 PA census. According to Samuel's brother, William's 1902 obituary, the other daughter, Pheobe, was married to a man named Albright. Both Samuel's brothers, James and William, were living in Liberty TWP, McKean Co, PA in 1860.

George W. Grigsby

In looking about among the circle of our acquaintances, we are surprised to see how few have made life a success. Perhaps in the start each had, to all appearances, the same opportunities, but at the close failures are thickly scattered, while here and there a successful one is found. We may call the attention of our readers to George W. Grigsby as one who has made life a success, and we find him now, although comparatively a young man, yet so situated in life that the remainder of it may be spent in enjoying the fruits of his earlier labors. He was born in the county of Kent, England, in 1836. In 1840 he was taken by his father and mother, James and Martha Grigsby, with their two other children, to the United States, and settled in Wayne Co., N.Y., for a years; thence to Allegany Co., N.Y.; from thence the family moved to the lumber-woods of McKean and Cameron Cos., in Pennsylvania, where the subject of this sketch, at an early age, graduated in the saw-mill, and became skilled in the art of rafting lumber down the Alleghany and some of the head-waters of the Susquehanna. But so limited was his education that he was unable, at the age of twenty years, to read intelligibly in a common newspaper. Although backward, and at such an age, he determined to go to school, and accordingly, in the fall of 1856, with the money earned by his own hands, he attended the academy of Coudersport, Potter Co., Pa., until he attained a proficiency sufficient to teach school, which he followed, at intervals, with going to school, until 1863, when he married Miss Thankful M. Freeman, daughter of Judge Freeman, of Emporium, Cameron Co., Pa. Miss Freeman was born in 1839, in Eulalia township, Potter Co., Pa. During the succeeding winter Mr. Grigsby and his wife taught the village school at Emporium, he teaching the higher department, and his wife the primary. In the spring of 1864 they emigrated to Michigan, and in the winter of the same year he felled the first tree towards clearing the land where is now located his home. Paid two hundred dollars down on the land (eighty acres) and gave a mortgage of six hundred dollars, but by industry, frugality, and living within their means were soon out of debt and prosperous.

They have four living children, viz.: Octavia, born July 12, 1865; Orrell, born Sept. 22, 1867; Arthur, born Oct. 5, 1869; and Huldah, born Nov. 27, 1872. Mr. Grigsby has always voted with the Democratic party. Has taken an active part in the official business of the township, having been town clerk four terms, and served as supervisor, treasurer, and township superintendent of schools. We see by these offices of trust to which he has been elected by the people of his township that he has not only found time to make his own business affairs successful, but also to efficiently perform the duties of the public offices which he has held.<sup>8</sup>

C. A. Burdick

C. A. BURDICK, farmer, P.O. Norwich, was born in Norwich township, McKean Co., Penn., November 1, 1830, the youngest of eight children born to Rowland and Alvira (Webb) Burdick, natives of New York, who came to Norwich township in 1815. Mr. Burdick has always resided on the old homestead, and been engaging in farming. He married, August 12, 1855, Miss Viletta, a daughter of Orin and Nancy (Corwin) Gallup, and they are the proud parents of six children, viz: Clarence A., Elbert C., Orlo J., Wellington L., Alice E. and Ina V. Mr. Burdick has been actively identified with the interests of the township, and has held various township offices.

<sup>10</sup> Samuel Grigsby married Mary A. Evenden in Kent County, England in 1842 – shortly before leaving for the United States. Samuel died in 1855 from the harsh winter according to his wife's 1897 obituary. John, William, Charles, Pheobe and Ella are spread around McKean and Potter County, PA by 1860 (I have not located Pheobe in any census).

<sup>11</sup> Frances Grigsby, died at age 64 and is buried with Thomas Grigsby in Pleasant View Cemetery in Williamson. She is most likely second wife to Thomas – and possibly mother to John Smoulton or his deceased wife. I have no records other than the 1841 census in England that has her living with Thomas.

<sup>12</sup> According to Internet records posted by Grigsby researchers, Larry and Mina Ostergard, William and Samuel Grigsby are sons of Thomas and Anne Worger Grigsby.

<sup>13</sup> In 1852 there was an Evenden and Richardson marriage but I do not know the first names.

<sup>14</sup> Hannah Grisby (not Grigsby - 29 b. NY) was recorded in 1850 Lyons TWP, Wayne County census living with Nathan Burnett (61 b. MA) and his wife, Hannah (56 b. MA)—likely daughter of Thomas and Frances Grigsby. Hannah Grigsby, (38 year old servant born in England) was recorded in 1860 Williamson, Wayne Co, NY, living with William (71) and Ann (66) Pierce of England. A biography written by Susan Grigsby (dau. of James) mentions a brother named John and an unmarried sister who also came to the states from England (see 1841 Kent Co, ENG census). The only other Grigsby remaining in Wayne County by 1860 was 16 year old Caroline Grigsby, daughter of William – she was enumerated with James Yapel.

<sup>21</sup> Mary Evenden Grigsby Burdick, widow of Samuel Grigsby. Birth locations in census were miss-placed, Roland was born in RI and Mary in England, Laura was born PA and John in New York. According to wescovey@hotmail.com on the Internet site of ancestry.com (2004) Mary died in 1897 Smethport and is buried in Norwich TWP, McKean Co, PA.

<sup>26</sup> The first census record that I find Phebe Emma Grigsby – daughter of Samuel and Mary Evenden Grigsby. She married Joseph Albright in October of 1867.

<sup>27</sup> This is likely Hannah Grigsby, daughter of Thomas and Frances Grigsby. During this census she is living in the Wayne County Poor House and Asylum with her daughter Anna. She reports that the father of Anna is not foreign born and that she (Hannah) cannot read or write.

<sup>28</sup> John Grigsby, son of Samuel and Mary, enumerated with Pardon (age 52 b. VT) and Clorisa (age 43 b. NY) Wright – relationship to John unknown.

<sup>29</sup> Martha is the daughter of William and Betsy Grigsby - see the 1860 McKean County, PA. census. According to a biographical sketch in the “History of McKean County” Charles A. Dolly made his home with his parents until 1859, when he went to California, where he remained for 3 ½ years. He returned to Port Allegany as a farmer, merchant and lumberman. He married Martha J. Grigsby in 1865 and had 4 children. He was a Prohibitionist and a member of the Sons of Temperance.

Canfield Woman Is Victim as Auto Hits Trees

A Canfield woman was killed and a Youngstown woman was injured Monday afternoon when their car swerved out of control on a rain-slicked highway just east of Callahan, Fla.

Mrs. Carmen Grigsby, 59, of 4046 S. Canfield-Niles Road, a housekeeper at the Mahoning County Home, was killed instantly about 4 p.m.

Mrs. John Hingell, 59, of 717 Steel St., is in fair condition with a severe cut of the left leg and body bruises in Humphreys Memorial Hospital, Fernandina Beach, Fla., near Jacksonville. She underwent surgery at 10 p.m. Monday. Hospital authorities said she was in shock but seems to be responding to treatment.

Two West Virginia women were injured in the smashup. Mrs. Beulah Krantz of South Charleston, w. Va., the driver, and Mrs. Mae Youell, 75, of Kincaid, W. Va., both are listed in fair condition in the hospital with cuts and bruises.

Left here Saturday

Mrs. Alma Mitchell, a daughter, with whom Mrs. Grigsby lived, said her mother left Youngstown Saturday for Florida. She said they stopped at Charleston to pick up Mrs. Krantz and Mrs. Youell. Mrs. Krantz is a twin sister of Mrs. Grigsby, while Mrs. Youell is an aunt. Mrs. Hinzell is a friend. The four women had planned to visit Mrs. Krantz's son, Louis Stone, in Tampa.

William H. Grigsby (1845 – 1902)

DIED ON THE ROOF

WM. GRIGSBY, A WELL KNOWN CARPENTER EXPIRED WHILE AT HIS WORK SATURDAY.

HEART FAILURE WAS THE CAUSE.

The community was shocked Saturday morning last to hear that Wm. Grigsby, an old resident of Smethport, had suddenly died while at work.

Mr. Grigsby had been in poor health for several months, but was apparently feeling much better than usual Saturday morning and upon the request of Clarence Powell of East Smethport, with whom he usually worked at his trade of carpenter, willingly consented to help place an iron roof on what is known as the Smith house on Cemetery street.

He proceeded to the house and climbing to the roof went to work. About 9 o'clock Mr. Powell, who was on the ground, was horrified to see Mr. Grigsby sink lifeless to the roof. He hurried to his assistance and brought him to the ground, then summoned physicians by telephone. But it was useless; the man was dead, probably before he could be taken from the roof.

William H. Grigsby was born in Wayne county, N. Y., July 14, 1845. While a resident of Portage Creek he enlisted in Co. E. 58th Pennsylvania Volunteers and served four years during the Civil war. In 1866 he was married to Miss Mahale Keller at Clifton Springs, Va., living there about 12 years before he moved to Smethport. Aside from one daughter, Mrs. Mary Chase of Erie, he leaves two brothers, John of Smethport and Charles of Millboro, Va.; one half-brother, Anson Burdick of Smethport; two sisters, Mrs. W. O. Gallup of Kane and Mrs. Pheobe Albright of Elmira, N. Y.

The funeral was held at the late home of the deceased on Cemetery street, Monday afternoon, McKean Post, No. 347, G. A. R. having charge of the obsequies. Rev. Gaylard H. Patterson delivered the funeral address. The remains followed to their final resting place in Rose Hill cemetery by a large concourse of sorrowing friends.

Mr. Grigsby was a man well liked by all who knew him. Honest, upright and industrious his death is a loss to the community. By his demise another soldier is added to the silent, great, majority.

Mary Evenden Grigsby Burdick (1823 – 1897)

Death of Mrs. Mary A. Burdick

Mrs. Mary A. Burdick died at her home in this borough Sunday morning, from a decline, caused by her advanced age, aged 73 years and 7 months.

The deceased was the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Evenden, and was born in Biddenden<sup>74</sup>, England, Nov. 6, 1824. At the age of 19 years she was united in marriage to Samuel Grigsby and emigrated to Wayne county, N. Y. The fruits of their union were five children, all of whom survive her: Charles Grigsby of Millboro, Va.; Mrs. Ella Gallup of Colegrove; Mrs. Phoebe Albright, of Elmira, N. Y., and John and William Grigsby both of this borough.

The family removed from Wayne county, N. Y., in 1850, and settled in Portage Creek, a few miles above Port Allegany. Here in April 1855, Samuel Grigsby died, of illness caused by exposure to the rigorous winters of this section.

John Grigsby (1843 – 1913)

John Grigsby DEAD – Well known Resident Passed Away Last Friday-aged 70 Years.

John Grigsby, an old and well-known resident of this borough, passed away at his home on Nelson Street, last Friday morning, June 27, 1913. He was 70 years and seven days old and the cause of his death was creeping paralysis, which had confined him to his bed for some time.

Mr. Grigsby was born at Williams Corners, Wayne county, New York, June 20, 1843. At the age of 12 years he came to this place where he has since resided. When a young man he learned the carpenter's trade and has followed that occupation ever since. He was a good workman, an honest, contentious man in every respect, a kind and obliging neighbor and his death will be keenly felt by a large circle of friends in this place and immediate vicinity.

On November 17, 1870 he was united in marriage to Miss Adel Gifford and the fruits of this union were six children who with their mother survive to mourn his loss. The surviving children are: Mrs. Elma Humphrey, of Bradford; Leon L. Grigsby of Buffalo; Mrs. Emeline Hendrickson, of North Clymer, N. Y.; Roy Grigsby of Eldred; Samuel Grigsby, of this place, and Mrs. Mildred Nagel, of Bradford. He is also survived by two sisters, Mrs. Ella Gallup, of Kane, and Mrs. Phoebe Albright, of Rochester, N. Y., and one brother, Charles Grigsby of Wayne, W. Va. Mr. Grigsby was a very kind and loving man in his family and his death is a severe blow to all his relatives.

The funeral services were held at his late home on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. W. E. VanDyke, rector of St. Luke's church, officiating, and his remains were laid at rest in Rose Hill cemetery.
