James Ramsey (1773-1849) of Augusta County VA

The documentation within this record of research is collected to determine the progenitor of the Ramsey line of James Ramsey who was born in Augusta County, Virginia June 10, 1773, and died September 23, 1849, in Hopkins County, Kentucky. The documentation provided to support the James Ramsey family branch is abundant. The mystery of his parentage is highly disputed and numerous inaccurate accounts of this information can be found all over the internet. The common theme from Ramsey researchers seems to be that brothers (possibly Robert, John and James) from Scotland or Ireland ended up in Augusta County, Virginia and that one remained in Augusta County while two of them dispersed to different locations in eastern United States. Although the trunk of the tree is not definitive, the branches of the trees tracked within this documentation have their own focused research. At this point, I have done my best to steer clear of strong circumstantial speculation that links each branch to the trunk without definitive proof. Nevertheless, errors may still exist, and I am not averse to correcting them if there is documentation to back up the dispute.

The primary branch researched in this documentation is James Ramsey (1773-1849). James is the third great-grandfather of my wife, Margaret Mary Ramsey. James married Margaret Karr 23 October 1794. Margaret was the daughter of James, Jr. (1725-1812) and Jane Robertson (1739-1824) Kear of Augusta County. "Margaret Ramsey" is mentioned as a daughter in her father's 1811 Will. The James Ramsey family is first located in Augusta County, Virginia in the 1810 federal census. Each of his children at the time (listed in a family bible) is accounted for in the census: Jane (b. 1796), Alexander (b. 1798), Margaret (b. 1801), Nathaniel (b. 1803), James Karr (b. 1805), Eliza (b. 1807), Patsy (b. 1810). One more son, Green (b. 1812) was born in Augusta County prior to the family's migration westward. By the time Parthula Ramsey was born in February 1814, the James Ramsey family was living in Hopkins County, Kentucky. James and Margaret Karr both died in Hopkins County – their burial location is not known and may never be verified. A couple of worn-out and unreadable headstones in the Ramsey Cemetery of Providence, Kentucky could belong to them. Their first-born son, Alexander Ramsey (1798-1857) was my wife's second great-grandfather.

Alexander Ramsey was born 3 Oct 1798 in Augusta County, VA and is the oldest son of 10 children. Alexander married Bethany Phillips 18 August 1828 in Union County, Kentucky. Bethany was the daughter of Andrew and Elizabeth Parker Phillips of Union County. Alexander and Bethany are both buried in the Ramsey Cemetery in Providence, Webster County, along with my wife's great-grandparents, Andrew Phillip and Rebecca Katherine Humphrey Ramsey.

Andrew Phillip Ramsey (1833-1891) married Rebecca Katherine Humphrey (1832-1917) on 3 Oct 1854 in Hopkins County, KY. Rebecca was the daughter of Raleigh Benjamin Humphrey (1802-1891) and Jane Cain (1806-1884) – both were born in Ohio County, Kentucky and both are buried in the Ramsey Cemetery in Providence. Andrew Ramsey fought on the side of the Confederacy during the Civil War; upon his return home from the war, he swore to never wear anything blue. My wife and I took a trip to Kentucky in 1997 where we visited the Ramsey Cemetery and cleared weeds and brambles with the help of Ramsey cousin Martie Cashion, descendant of Andrew Ramsey's sister, Margaret. While in Kentucky, we were able to visit many of Ramsey cousins and descendants of Emmaline Ramsey, twin sister of Andrew and Rebecca's son, George Monroe Ramsey – my wife's grandfather.

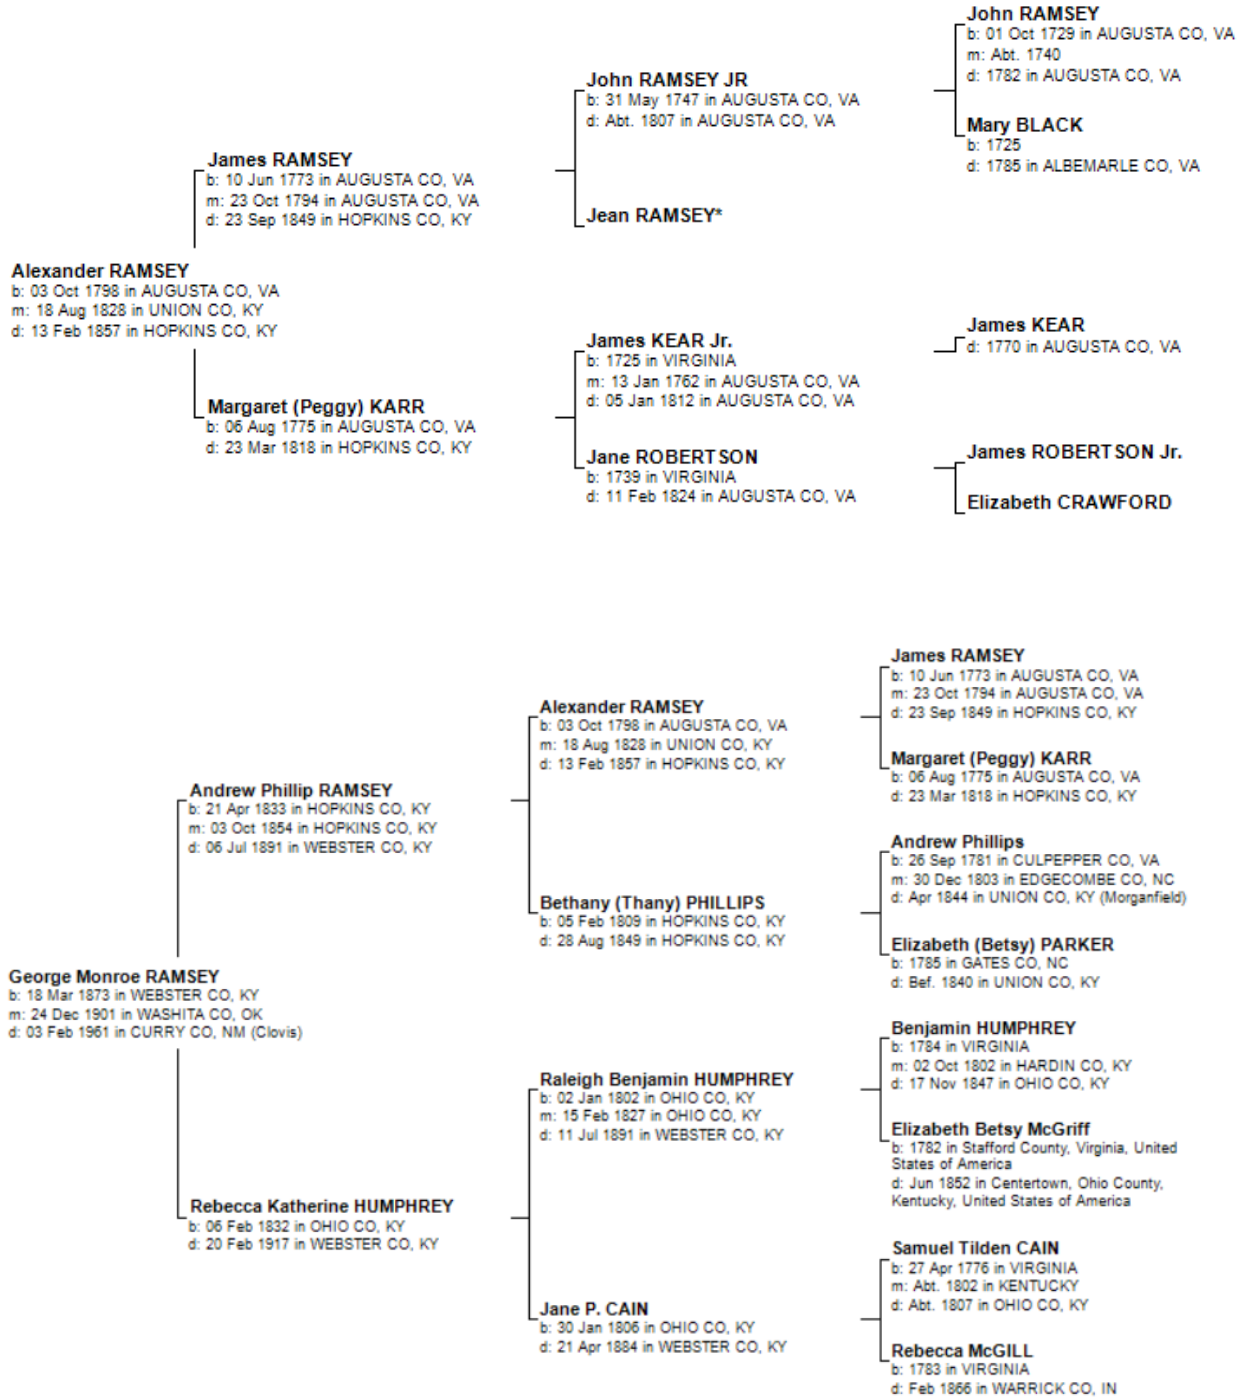

On 18 Mar 1873 in Webster County, KY, George Monroe Ramsey was born to Andrew and Rebecca Ramsey. George moved away from Kentucky and was introduced to his future wife by his sister, Rebecca Lisman Ramsey in Mountain View, Oklahoma. On 24 December 1901 he married Lelah Davis (1877-1962) in Washita County, OK. Lelah was the daughter of Benjamin F. Davis and Roberta Alice Dunn. Benjamin Davis was a dynamic and colorful character of many tales which would have to be shared in another story. George trained in Louisville, Kentucky as a Pharmacist and Lelah was a schoolteacher when they first met. All four of the George and Lelah Ramsey children were born in Oklahoma and they ended up settling in Ada, Oklahoma for some time. Their children were: Mai Fare (born 1902), George Phillip (born 1905), Catherine Davis (born 1908) and Homer Andrew (born 1915). Sometime after the 1920 Census of Miami, Ottawa County, Oklahoma, George and Lelah decided to move the family to Colorado Springs, Colorado to get the care needed for their oldest daughter, Mai Fare, who had contracted tuberculosis. Mai Fare died in Colorado Springs on 11 December 1925.

By the time of the 1930 Census, the George Monroe family was living in Amarillo, Texas. The family was again beset by tragedy on 13 May 1932 when George and Lelah's oldest son, George Phillip Ramsey, jumped through a window of the seventh floor of a high-rise building in downtown Amarillo. Around 1995, Marge, her sister Liz and I ventured to Amarillo to research the circumstances of this tragedy and found ourselves immersed in the world of Genealogy ever since.

George and Lelah Ramsey moved around a lot since their 1901 marriage, establishing themselves in pharmaceutical shops and other ventures over the years. By 1934, they settled in Clovis, New Mexico and eventually set up shop in the Ramsey Hotel of Clovis. George died of a heart attack in 1961, and Lelah followed him in 1962. George and Lelah are buried in the Mission Garden of Memories Cemetery in Clovis, along with their son and daughter-in-law, Homer Andrew and Virginia Ruth Kirkpatrick Ramsey.

BIOGRAPHIES

James K. "Pappy" Ramsey II

Written by James Karr Ramsey III

James Karr Ramsey II, born July 16, 1891, my father, had several nicknames but is probably most affectionately remembered as "Pappy", but more of that later.

How can you do justice to the life of a man with such a broad range of interests and activities? Pappy Ramsey was vitally interested in college, football, history, agriculture and in being a good husband and father.

His parents were Franklin Davide Ramsey and Janie Langley. His lineage includes Cox, Brown, Weir, Winstead, Ballard, Tapp, Karr, Clopton and Sargent families. His parents raised him and two other siblings, Marie Langley Ramsey (Crockett) and David F. Ramsey on the southeast corner of North Main and Noel Avenue in Madisonville where First Baptist Church now stands.

The progeny of these three gives F.D. and Janie eight grandchildren, 27 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren.

Dad loved to read, especially historical novels. From G.A. Henty's 110 volumes he got a very pro-British view of world history. He entered Centre College in 1908, played four years of varsity football, fullback on offense, tackle on defense and was All-Southern three years. There he was associated with men of future prominence such as Fred Vinson, Louis and Bill Seelbach and Bill Duffy, graduating in 1912.

Dad enlisted in World War I in the United States Army and was commissioned a Second Lieutenant from O.T. C. On August 17, 1917, he made the smartest move of his life when he married Miss Frank Waller. This union produced three children, Jimmy, Jane Waller and Frank Ramsey; thirteen grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Dad's business interests were farming, (Shamrock Dairy Farm); banking (Hopkins County Bank) and coal mining (Providence Coal Co.). He had two avocations that were of great interest, high school football coaching and National Guard Service.

His coaching during the 20's and early 30's led to a strong influence for good with young men such Beverly and Clifton Waddill, Otto Corum and Karl Pate, to name just a few.

His work as commanding officer of the local National Guard Company, Headquarters Co., 3rd Battalion, 149th Infantry Regiment, led to further association with young men of Hopkins County from 1926 until his retirement for physical disability in 1941.

Pappy was wild about his only daughter, Jane Waller, and here is how he got the nickname "Pappy". Mother taught Jane Waller to call him Pappy and it stuck.

Dad was a very warm hearted, outgoing, jocular person and because of the fatherly interest he took in the young men he worked with, the nickname seemed natural.

Dad was very patriotic and a great believer in the importance of the role to be played by the "citizen soldier" in the National Guard and Reserve. His failure to qualify physically for service in World War II was one of the great disappointments of his life. Norvel Moore, Robert V. Hall, Al Mabrey, George "Bug" Bone and Lloyd Farmer are just a few of the many whose first military training under "Pappy" Ramsey led to distinguished service in World War II.

Miss Frank Waller

Written by James Karr Ramsey III

Why did Frank E. Waller, female born Aug. 27, 1892, carry a man's name all her life? She was named for her father, a doctor who died of pneumonia contracted tending and nursing his patients, at the age of 37 before my mother was born.

Mrs. Wall (nee Pernetia Ross "Rose" Ashby) swore to name the child she carried after her beloved late husband, and when a female child arrived, she did just that. Almost 47 years later Frank Waller Ramsey died of kidney failure Aug. 2, 1939.

A life that began on a note of sadness and ended in a tragic untimely death, was nonetheless one of great service and benefit to humankind and of great self-fulfillment to her.

This is the story of the life of a very intelligent, energetic, compassionate woman who was a great teacher and stalwart friend, a person who gave light and understanding to every life she touched.

Her grandparents were P-Squire Waller-Sarah Wheaton Ross. His lineage includes Morton, Bordely, Dade, Davis, Henly, Strawbridge, Nelson and Boysman.

Miss Frank graduated with honors from Georgetown College in 1914 with a major in English Literature and began a teaching career that except for time out for childbearing, lasted the rest of her life. In her almost 25 years of teaching, she exerted a positive and beneficial influence on many hundreds of young people. Many of her students pursued teaching careers themselves, no doubt inspired by her example.

She was active in civic affairs. In 1919 she wrote the constitution for the newly-formed P.T.A. an outgrowth of the Mothers Club. She as a lifelong member of First United Methodist Church. She was an active leader in the Woman's Club and the American Legion Women's Auxiliary.

On Aug. 17, 1917, she married James Karr Ramsey II and to this union three children, James Karr III, April 1919; Jane Waller, Jun 1923; and Frank D., 1926; were born.

James K. III married Marie Eba and had five children, James M., Nancy, Ella, Sue and Clara, and four grandchildren.

Jane Waller married Davis S. Morgan and had four children, Shannon, Frank, Leith and Martha, and one grandchild.

Frank D. married Josephine Creemur and had five children, Patricia, Robin, Steven, Terrence and Jane.

Males John b. 1815, James b. 1805, Nathaniel b. 1803, Alexander b. 1798, James b. 1773
Females Parthula b. 1814, Patsy b. 1810, Eliza b. 1807, Jane b. 1796

¹ This is the first time I find James Ramsey (1773-1849) of this research. The children and wife ages match up perfectly and there is little double this is him. Unfortunately, a likely father match does not present itself.

² Andrew is very likely the son of John and Mary Black Ramsey (he is still in the area when his brother-in-law Andrew Steele died in 1801).

³ James, William, John and Samuel have not been definitively placed yet – but I believe the elder James is Dr. James Ramsey (1756-1815), son of William and Mary Jane Paisley Ramsey (Wm, John and Saml are likely his sons). The James Kerr family are the parents of Margaret Kerr Ramsey.

⁴ Do not know who this George is – based on the 1810 and 1820 census records he would be born about 1766-1776.

⁵ Robertsons in this census could be related to Jane Robertson who married James Kerr in Augusta Co, VA.

⁷ Daniel Ramsey married Frances Townsend 15 Jan 1830 in Person County, NC – Daniel has not been definitively linked to the Ramseys researched in Hopkins County.

⁸ Elizabeth is daughter of Alexander and Bethany Phillips Ramsey – Elizabeth Oakley dies in 1852.

⁹ Rebecca Katherine Humphrey marries Andrew Phillip Ramsey 3 Oct 1854 in Hopkins Co.

¹¹ Margaret J. Ramsay married James Chandler in Dec 1848 – it appears the Ramsey girls may be hers. James and Margaret are enumerated in the household of the Nicholas G (27) and Sarah (24) Jones family.

¹² Thomas T. Ramsey is son of Lewis and grandson of Daniel Ramsey (1840-1810).

CAMP SHENANDOAH, }
APRIL 16TH, 1863. }

MR. EDITOR :—Permit me to use your columns for the purpose of expressing the grateful thanks of the Augusta Leo Rifles, (Co. D,) to Mr. JAS. RAMSEY, of West View, Augusta county, Va., and several kind ladies of that neighborhood, for the seasonable present of a large box, containing provisions, enough to supply the Company for two days. Circumstances rendered this thoughtful kindness doubly welcome. The three days' rations had in most cases been completely spoiled by the long march through the mud and rain of yesterday, and in place of Confederate beef, such luxuries as chicken, ham, loaf-bread, pies, cakes, &c., now fill our haversacks. I assure the generous donors that Co. D. appreciates, and will not soon forget this treat.

OBITUARIES

Andrew Philip Ramsey (1833-1891)

RAMSEY – IN MEMORIAM

On July 6, 1891, Mr. A. P. Ramsey, at Eureka View, Kentucky died peacefully in the arms of Jesus. He had suffered unremittingly for some ten weeks with a congestion and inflammatory rheumatism, when death, to his balm, came to his rescue.

His entire Christian life of 40 years is an index to the way he died. A courageous disciple. Mr. Ramsey was 58 years old and has been a member of and a deacon in the United Baptist Church for 35 years.

In his seemingly untimely death his family and his Church, and his community, sustain an irreparable loss.

There is no death. "Not dead but gone before." Nothing once created ever enters oblivion. Like the flower that droops and withers at the north wind's breath and hides its beauties of summer under winter's icy robes, so beautifully embellished with icicles, sinks only into slumbers to be awakened at the first call of the robin and the earliest flush of gladsome springtide.

The body of the departed brother likes in dreamless sleep in the silent grave, while the soul has passed the portals of death to be awakened at the first call of the Herald Angels.

Devoted wife and loving children, a chair in your family circle has been made vacant forever; the form you so much cherished has darkened the threshold of you now sad home its last time, but while he is absent in the flesh we have it in God's own word that he is with us in the capacity of a guardian Angel.

Then would you call him back who so confidently reached out to clasp grim death's hand that he might be helped to span the chasm of death? Longfellow has told all of death in verse:

"There is no death. What seems so is transition – this life of mortal death is but a suburb of the life Elysian, whose portals we call death."

It seems almost wrong to mourn the dead with tears, though the wealthiest tribute love can give death is a tear, for they are forever closed behind the clashing doors of mundane discord, poverty, shame and sin and opened the pearly doors that lead to "Mansions not made with hands eternal in the Heavens."

Weep not for him that dieth for he hath ceased from tears. Then, dear friends, while we calmly wait for summons let's make all of like that we may be prepared to meet it; Let us find those estranged and bring them back into the fold of our love; Let us make the heavy hearts glad by forgiving them before they die, for those who die out of our hearts are always forgiven at the last. How much better to forgive and make their hearts lighter before the last comes.

RAMSEY

On yesterday, before a large congregation of Corinth Baptist Church, Webster County, Kentucky, I delivered a funeral discourse for Bro. A. P. Ramsey, who died on July 6, 1891. The brother was 58 years old when he died, 35 of which he spent as a devoted member and deacon of the church above named. Tus the providence of God, to us clothed with darkness, has called from our midst one ripe in usefulness, yet we may find comfort in the fact that the keep pain by his family, his friends, his church, his pastor and his country may be regarded as the measure of heaven's eternal gain.

George Phillip Ramsey (1905-1932)

HURLS SELF TO DEATH FROM OFFICE BUILDING

G.P. RAMSEY, 26, FALLS 7 STORIES AT THIRD, POLK

HAD BEEN IN ILL HEALTH

RULE BUILDING IS SCENE OF EARLY MORNING TRAGEDY HERE

Despondent over failing health, George Phillip Ramsey, 26 years old, early today leaped to his death from the seventh floor of the Rule Building, Polk Street at Third Avenue.

Young Ramsey apparently hurled himself through a heavy plate glass hallway window on the Polk Street side, officers reported after an investigation.

Attracted by the sound of shattering glass, crowd of early morning shoppers and office workers in adjoining buildings saw the man hurtle downward, a distance of 75 to 100 feet.

Deputy tells of Tragedy.

In a shower of broken glass, Ramsey fell on top of a parked motor car and his body bounded in the sidewalk. His chest was crushed and death was almost instantaneous. There were only a few slight scratches on the face.

J. E. Rogers of the Hollywood Apartments. A special deputy was the first to reach the crushed, unconscious form.

"While standing in front of the Amarillo Hotel I heard a woman scream," the special deputy said. "I dashed diagonally across the street intersection, and the man was still breathing when I reached him."

Rogers and members of the police department said the young man apparently made a running leap down the hallway to break the plate glass, full a quarter inch thick and set in a locked steel frame.

Lowell McCain, a washer for the Troy Laundry, saw the turning, twisting figure crash the full distance.

Verdict is Suicide

Justice J. W. Minter was called to conduct a coroner's inquest. The coroner's verdict was suicide. Ramsey went to the Rule Building early this morning with his uncle M. S. Ramsey, a hosiery salesman who was to attend a meeting in a sixth floor office.

From the sixth floor, Ramsey walked the one flight, officers concluded. None of the elevator operators had taken anyone to the seventh floor which was vacated recently, by a motor corporation, leaving the entire floor unoccupied.

In Failing Health.

The fatal leap was taken at 8:10 o'clock, only a few minutes after Ramsey had been seen on the sixth floor, office workers said.

Until last September George P. Ramsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ramsey, 715-A North Fillmore Street, had been employed as a soda clerk at the Freeman Pharmacy in the Lewis Hotel, Third Avenue and Taylor Street.

Because of failing health, Ramsey resigned as a clerk and had not been employed since.

Relatives said the young man worried about his physical condition and suffered a nervous breakdown.

Funeral Not Arranged

Ramsey, who had been a resident of Amarillo for five years, coming here from Oklahoma, was 26 years old last February.

Besides the parents, the surviving relatives are a sister, Catherine, and a brother, Homer, both residents of Amarillo.

Funeral arrangements will be announced by N. S. Griggs and Sons at the convenience of relatives.

Suicide, Says a Coroner's Verdict Over Man Who Plunged to Death

George Phillip Ramsey, 26, early yesterday hurled himself to death through a heavy plate glass window on the seventh floor of the Rule Building, Polk Street at Third Avenue.

With his chest crushed, Ramsey lived only a few minutes after his body struck atop a motor car parked on Polk Street and bounded off onto the sidewalk amid a shower of shattered glass and astonished, horrified shoppers.

"Suicide" was the coroner's verdict, rendered by Justice J. W. Minster.

Brooded Over Health

Young Ramsey had been in failing health for some time. He brooded over his condition and suffered a nervous breakdown.

Early yesterday morning he went to the Rule Building with his uncle, M. S. Ramsey, who was to attend a salesman's meeting on the sixth floor.

Young Ramsey evidently walked to the seventh floor since none of the elevator operators remembered taking a passenger to the seventh landing a few minutes after he was seen on the sixth on the sixth floor the crash of glass was heard.

Glass Locked in Frame

All the seventh floor space was vacated recently and no one saw Ramsey as he dashed down the hallway.

"He had to run and leap at the window," officers concluded after investigation.

The window glass, fully a quarter inch thick, was set in a locked, steel frame.

J. E. Rogers, a special deputy; Lowell McCain, a laundry driver, and others saw Ramsey hurtle downward, a distance of 75 or 100 feet. They were attracted by the noise of shattering glass and looked up, to see the turning, twisting figure.

Ramsey came here five years ago from Oklahoma and until last September he was employed as a soda clerk at the Freeman Pharmacy in the Lewis Hotel, Third Avenue and Taylor Street. He resigned, explaining to his employers that he wanted to be "outside" and had not been employed since.

Relatives and his former employers said the young man had brooded about his condition.

Besides the parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Ramsey, 715-A North Fillmore Street; a sister, Catherine, and a brother, Homer, both of Amarillo, survive him.

There are several sandstone rocks in this cemetery, but they had no readable inscriptions on them²¹. In 1997, My wife Marge and I, along with our two very young kids and Ramsey cousin Martie Cashion²² drove a truck through the owner’s farm (with permission - while nearly getting stuck in the mud). We spent most of the day cleaning up the brush and brambles to clear the way to see the stones in the cemetery.

MYSTERIES TO SOLVE

The biggest mystery in this branch of my research is “Who is the father of James Ramsey (1773-1849)? Family lore, family names, first child name of “Jane”, and the 1810 Augusta County census are a few strong circumstantial clues that put me at a 95% surety that his parents are John, Jr. (1747-1807) and Jane Ramsey of Augusta County. John was the son of John (died 1783) and Mary Black (died 1785) Ramsey. I have a listing of John Jr.’s children from his 1806 Last Will and Testament – but have no proven birth or death dates on any of them. This is an area I am trying very hard to verify but I am staying clear of a lot of suspect information on the Internet²⁴.

John Ramsey married Ruth Donohoo in 1830 Hopkins County – and this marriage is in the James Ramsey family bible. What is the connection between James and Margaret Karr Ramsey.

4 GENERATIONS OF THE JAMES RAMSEY (1773-1849) BRANCH

²⁴ Some researchers on the Internet post that John Sr. is Col. John Ambrose Ramsey and that his son John Ambrose Jr. died in 1851 NC. This connection does not bear out as the same John Ramsey, Jr. I am researching.

brother of Catherine and Homer

John Ramsey (d. 1783) of Augusta County VA

The starting point for this branch of my Ramsey research begins with the Will records of the Ramseys in Augusta and Albemarle Counties in Virginia – starting with the 15 Feb 1783 Last Will and Testament of John Ramsey – the Will was proved 15 Apr 1783 in Augusta County. He names the following heirs to his estate:

- Son Andrew Ramsey (a little survey of land – plus money lent to him)
- Son George Ramsey (300 pounds worth of cash and property)
- Son John Ramsey (one French crown)
- Son Alexander Ramsey (one French crown)
- Son William Ramsey (one French crown)
- Grandson John Ramsey (one French crown)
- Grandson Alexander Ramsey (one French crown)
- Granddaughter Mary Ramsey (1200 pounds paper money)
- Grandson John Steele (1200 pounds if Mary dies before becoming of age)
- Wife Mary Ramsey (she is left half the estate of land, stock and property)
- Son Daniel Ramsey (whatever is left of the estate and property)

John's wife Mary wrote her Last Will and Testament 30 Dec 1784, and it was proved 17 Oct 1785. Mary resided in St. Annes Parish, County of Albemarle at the time of her death. She names the following heirs to her estate.

- Alexander Ramsey, son to James Ramsey (he is under 21 at the time of the Will)
- Mary Ramsey, daughter to James Ramsey (she is not of age at the time of the Will)
- Sons named: John, Alexander, Andrew, William, George, and Andrew Steel

Tracking Immediate Family Members of John and Mary Black Ramsey

Between John and Mary's Will records it can be determined that one son, James, died before them and left three children: John, Alexander, and Mary Ramsey. Their mother was not named in any documentation that I could find. James was baptized by Rev. John Craig 8 Dec 1745.

Shortly after his father John died, son Daniel Ramsey left a Will that was proved 15 Jun 1784. He never married or had any children. He leaves half his portion of his estate back to his mother as stipulated in his father's Will - the rest he leaves to his brothers: John, Andrew Steel, Alexander, Andrew, William, and George. He also includes John²⁵, son to his deceased brother, James, in the apportionment. If John dies before coming of age, his brother Alexander receives the inheritance – no mention is made of their sister, Mary.

Andrew Steele had a 13 Feb 1800 Last Will and Testament that was proved 22 Jun 1801. Although Andrew was not likely a Ramsey by blood, he was recognized as a son to Mary Ramsey and a brother to at least Daniel Ramsey. John Sr. acknowledges John Steele, Andrew's son, as his grandson in his Will, where inference can be made that John Steele could have been the only child of John and Mary Black Ramsey's unnamed daughter before an untimely death. This inference is not proven. Andrew names his wife Mary; daughters Mary, Sarah, and Jean (Jane); and sons John, Andrew, and James in his Will. "Pvt VA Militia Rev War" Andrew Steele (1743-1800) is buried in Spottswood, Augusta County in the Old Providence ARP Church Cemetery.

John Ramsey, son of John, was baptized by Rev. John Craig, 31 May 1747 in Augusta County. John Jr. names the following family members in his Last Will and Testament written and witnessed 23 Nov 1806:

| | | |
|--------------------|-----------------------|-----------------------|
| Son John Ramsey | Wife Jean Ramsey | |
| Son James Ramsey | Daughter Sally Ramsey | Executors: |

| Son William Ramsey | Son Daniel Ramsey | |

I have very little information about George Ramsey, son of John and Mary Black Ramsey. He inherited from his fathers, mothers, and brother Daniels Wills. On August 17, 1784, George is appointed Guardian of Alexander Ramsey – likely son of his deceased brother James. His father John left him land in Kentucky – this is a possible lead to where he may have ended up. In the 1820 Hopkins County, KY census there are James and George Ramsey of the 45+ age range - George does not have a female of wife age in his household. James (1773-1849) is my wife's third great-grandfather – and it is possible that the allusive George (born abt. 1754) could be a relative to George - more research to do here.

Alexander Ramsey was baptized 16 Apr 1749 in Augusta County by Rev. John Craig. Alexander was a Sergeant in the 13th Virginia Regiment during the American Revolution. I found the following paragraph of information on Find-a-Grave on the Internet site of the Sugar Ridge Cemetery in Clark County, KY, where Alexander (1749-1821), his wife Mary (1750-1822), and several generations of their progeny are buried:

“In 1784 Alexander sold his land in Virginia to his brother William and joined a band of pioneers (some 200) and traveled the Wilderness Trail through the Cumberland Gap into what would later become Fayette County, Kentucky. They settled on Big Stone Creek in what was to become Clark Co., KY. Alexander had married Mary (possibly Steele) while in Virginia and they had 7 children. Alexander Jr., John, William, Andrew, James, Sarah and Mary. By 1805, Alexander had acquired 600 acres of land and established the Sugar Ridge Presbyterian Church and graveyard on the Big Stone Creek.”

William Ramsey (d. 1832), son of John Sr., settled in St. Anne's Parish of Albemarle County, Virginia – he was living in the county at least by the time of the 1780 Reconstructed Census. In 1783, his brother Alexander assigned 67 acres to him in Albemarle before he went west to Kentucky. William's mother, Mary Black Ramsey, died in Albemarle County – in the vicinity of several “Black” surname families. On 18 Nov 1783, William became guardian of John Ramsey – likely son of his deceased brother, James. Internet sources say William Ramsey married Margaret Wallace 3 Dec 1885 in Albemarle, County – but this is in dispute. At the time that William wrote his January 1831 Will, his wife Margaret and son William were not addressed - presumably deceased. William acknowledged the following family members in his Last Will and Testament.

Son John Ramsey – his children get 300 acres that their parents live on, until their deaths
Grandson William, son of John, will manage the 300 acres of land
Son Andrew – whatever lent to him remains – his children can split it
Son-in-law Janoff Harris (married daughter Jane)
Son-in-law Meredith Martin (married daughter Margaret)
Son-in-law Jeremiah Wayland (married daughter Polly)²⁶

Andrew Ramsey, son of John and Mary Black Ramsey, remained in Augusta County in Waynesboro, VA after the death of his parents. Andrew Ramsey lived his entire life in Augusta County, VA – this is confirmed by his presence in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 census records. From the early 1800 census records of Augusta County, VA – it appears that brothers Andrew and John Ramsey, Jr. are the only sons of John and Mary Black Ramsey to be left in Augusta County. In the 1830 census, Andrew and two John Ramsey's are showing in the Northern District of the County. Dr. James Ramsey (son of William who died in 1789) and sons are part of the Southern District of Ramsey families – with connections to Rockbridge County, VA (once a part of Augusta County, VA.) Very little is known of Andrew, his wife Mary (nee Steel according to Internet sources) or any of his children. I have found no Will, marriage, or cemetery records to date. This is an area that requires more research.

²⁶ Jeremiah and Mary Ramsey Wayland married 10 Jan 1819 in Albemarle County, VA. Their headstones on in the Crozet, Rockgate, Cemetery. According to the Find-a-Grave website the stones only were removed from a family cemetery elsewhere.

²⁸ This is the first time I find James Ramsey (1773-1849) of this research. The children and wife ages match up perfectly and there is little doubt this is him. His most likely father, John Ramsey, Jr. died in 1807.

²⁹ Jane Ramsey, widow of John Ramsey, Jr. who died about 1807.

³⁰ James, William, John and Samuel have not been definitively placed yet – but I believe the elder James is Dr. James Ramsey (1756-1815), son of William and Mary Paisley Ramsey (Wm, John and Saml are likely his sons).

³¹ Alexander Ramsey, son of John (1729-1782) and Mary Black (1725-1785) Ramsey

³² William Ramsey, son of John (1729-1782) and Mary Black (1725-1785) Ramsey

³³ This is likely Jane Lyle (1758-1836) widow of Dr. James Ramsey (1756-1815). Transcribed as “James” in census.

William Ramsey (1753-1831)

In the name of God Amen; I William Ramsey of the County of Albemarle being weak in body but of sound mind and disposing memory thanks be to god for the same and considering the certainty of death and the uncertainty of the time thereof and to the end that I may be better prepared (as respects my temporal concerns) to leave this world whenever it may please God to call me home do therefore make and declare this my Last Will and Testament in manner and form following that is to say, first and principally I commence my soul into the hands of Almighty God my creator who gave it and my body to the earth to be interred in a Christian like manner, at the discretion of my executors hereinafter named. And as to such worldly estate wherewith it has pleased God to intrust me with, I dispose of the same as follows.

Imprimis, It is my will and desire that my estate as soon as can be after my decease be equally divided in five parts in the following manner (to wit) I give and bequeath to my son John Ramsey's children three hundred acres of land, which has be lately survey by Col. Wm Woods it being the same land whereon my son John now resides. It is my will that my said son and his wife live on the land and have their support off the same during their lives. It is further my will and desire that the said John Ramsey's son William shall have the full management of the said land and use it for the joint benefit of all the said John Ramsey children, himself and wife during the life of said John Ramsey and wife then it is my will that the said land be sold and the money equally divided among the children of my son John or their heirs. It is my will and desire that as soon as can be after my decease the said three hundred acres of land on which my son John now lives be valued by two or three disinterested persons to be chosen by the court of this county for that special purpose and it the land should be valued to more than one fifth of my estate together with what my son John now owes which is at this time $133 or may owe at my decease then in that case my said grandson William acting for himself and his brothers and sisters shall pay to my estate the difference so as to make their share agreed with the rest of my children and if the said land together with what the said John now owes or my owe at my decease shall not amount to one fifth of my estate after the payment of all my just debts then my executors hereafter named shall pay to my grandson William Ramsey (to be for his benefit and for the benefit of his brothers and sisters a sum sufficient to make the land equal to the one fifth of my estate after the payment of all my just debts.. Secondly It is my will and desire that the balance of my estate shall be sold on such credit as my executors shall think best. That is the part of the land on which I now live containing by survey three hundred and seventy five acres and laid off by Col. Woods. If the part whereon my son Andrew lately lived containing two hundred and forty five acres also survey and laid off by Col. Woods and all my estate real and personal of whatsoever kind it may be I wish sold on a reasonable credit of the balances after paying my just debts and the legacy to my son Johns children if any be due them (likewise what property shall be hereafter given to Jeremiah Wayland shall he be considered as not subject to be sold as above stated) shall be divided in the following manner (to wit.) My son Andrew Ramsey has already the sum of eight hundred and Ninety five dollars and forty two cents, that sum or whatever he may be owing at my decease if the balance to make one fifth of my estate I give and bequeath to all the children of my son Andrew to them and their heirs forever. It is further my will and desire that my executors shall as soon as they can conveniently after my decease purchase a tract of land or tracts of land where they shall think most desirable with the money left to my son Andrew's children and that my son Andrew his wife to have the privilege to live on the same if they think proper to do so. But to have no further claim to said land and to enjoy the benefit of said land for their support and the support of their family during the lifetime of my said son Andrew and his wife and at their decease to be equally divided between all the children of my said son Andrew that may then be living or their lawful heirs forever. My son in law Janoff Harris who married my daughter Jane has had more than some of my children to wit. The sum of five hundred and five dollars and fifty one cents or whatever my be due from him to me at my decease. It is my will and desire that my executors pay to the said Janoff Harris so much out of my estate as to amount to one fifth of the same including the sum that he may have already received. It is my will and desire that my executors pay to my son in law Meredith Martin who married my daughter Margaret the one fifth of my estate in addition to what I have already given him but if my daughter Margaret shall die without and heir then and in thereof case it is my will and desire that the property and money shall return to my estate and be equally divided between the children of my son John Ramsey or their lawful heirs and my two sons in law Janoff Harris and Jeremiah Wayland or their lawful heirs. It is my will and desire in relation to the negro girl called Winney? Which I gave to my son in law Jeremiah Wayland some years ago the right and title of said negro and her two children and her future increase (if any) be now confirmed to him and his heirs forever. Likewise I give unto the said Wayland three cows with their calves, one burrow, one dining table two feather beds bedstands and furniture one pot and one oven one set knives and forks. It is further my will and desire that my son in law Jeremiah Wayland that married my daughter Polly shall have one fifth of my estate after all my Just debts are fully paid off.

And lastly I constitute and appoint my son in law Jeremiah Wayland and my grandson William Ramsey executors to this my last will and testament. In testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand and affixed my seal this 19th day of January 1831.

OBITUARY RECORD

John Ramsey (1777-1837)

Obituary: FATAL AFFRAY. On Friday of last week, Mr. John Ramsay³⁸, of Clarke County, was stabbed in the abdomen with a knife, by one of his sons, which caused his death the next day. The particulars of this unfortunate affair, as related to us are, as near as we can recollect, as follows: Young Ramsay (the son,) had just returned from school, and hearing that his father had been whipping, or was whipping a negro woman very severely, stepped into the room where he was, (having at the time an open knife in his hand, with which he was trimming his fingernails) and begged his father not to whip the woman anymore, as he thought he had whipped her enough, when the father turned upon and commenced using the cowhide on his son, catching him at the same time with his left hand, and jerking him so suddenly that they both fell. When they arose, it was discovered that the father was stabbed as above stated. Upon discovering that his father was stabbed, the young man appeared greatly distressed and disclaimed any intention of inflicting a wound of any kind on his father.

Biographical Sketch of John Ramsey

The life of the elder Ramsay seems to have been attended with many unfortunate accidents. When a young man, he accidentally killed a brother while hunting together in the woods. In 1832, he was, together with his eldest son, a daughter, and a man by the name of Orear, accused of and tried for the murder of Captain James Pace, who was murdered in his own bed; his daughter being the wife of Pace. He was acquitted by the jury, but not by public opinion; that fixed upon him the foul deed of having been the principal or an accessory in the murder of his son-in-law, while wrapped in the arms of sleep: whether justly or not, we do not pretend to say. And lastly, he has been sent to his long home by an accidental wound from a knife in the hands of his own son, while in the act, however, of inflicting upon that son a species of punishment that no father should ever attempt to inflict upon a child, especially in the presence, as we understand the case in the present instance, of his comrades and school-mates. We should not under any circumstance, justify the killing of a father by a son, except it was to save his own life, or that of his mother, a brother, or a sister from the murderous grasp of a father, and hardly in that case; but when a father, forgetful of the tender ties that exist between himself and one of his offspring, attempts to inflict upon him the degrading punishment of a cowhiding, he deserves to be killed accidentally. The family and connexions of the deceased Ramsay are generally respectable, and we wish, by nothing we have here said, to inflict a wound upon their feelings. Lex. Ob. and Rep.

MISCELANEOUS RECORDS

Extracts of Early Settlers in Augusta Co, VA

Rev. John Craig (Beverley Manor NE, 335 acres, 1742) (b. 21 Sept. 1710, Ireland, d. 21 April 1774, Augusta County, VA).

Robert Craig (Beverley Manor NE, 178 acres, 28 Feb. 1749 as verified in Chalkley's, Volume III, pg. 650 (all transactions on page are from 1749) (b. bef. 1722), m. Grizzell, little is known of this family, need additional info/research.

James Kerr/Carr, (Beverley Manor NE, 473 acres, 1739), who died in Augusta County, Virginia in 1770. His large house was used as an early meeting house and courthouse in Augusta County.

John Kerr (Beverley Manor NE, 275 acres, 1752), (b. abt. 1710, d. supposedly abt. 1763, Anson County, North Carolina), son of James Kerr, above, he married Lucy Pickens, daughter of William Pickens and Margaret Pike.

Thomas Kincaid (263 acres, adjoining John Preston, Robert Lockridge, Robert Gwin, 19 Nov. 1747 from Chalkley's), (b. 1704, prob. Ireland/Scotland, d. 1750, Augusta County, VA), married Margaret Lockhart on 21 June 1735 prob. in Pennsylvania. (Note: this land is most likely located on the "Calfpasture" area of Augusta County).

James Ramsey (lived in the Cow Pasture and acquired an 80 acre tract on North River of Shanando from Daniel and John Smith on 18 August, 1756, from Chalkley's), (b. abt. 1717, d. abt. 1760, Augusta County, Virginia), possibly the brother of Robert Ramsey who was killed in the Indian Raid of "Kerr's Creek" on October 10, 1759, listed below.

John Ramsey, Jr. (Beverley Manor NE, 110 acres, 22 Aug. 1771), This is probably John Ramsey, Jr. (b. abt. 1747, Augusta County, VA, d. 1790, Kentucky), son of Capt. John Ramsey and Mary Black Note: the date is difficult to read on map, but the following Chalkley's information verifies this date: Page 324.--22d August, 1771. Robert Beverley to John Ramsey, Jr., £13.10, 110 acres in Beverley Manor., Hugh McClure's corner, Samuel McCunes line. Delivered: William Ramsey, 5th October, 1772.

William Ramsey (From William Beverley, 582 acres in Calf Pasture on Little River. Cor. Alex Dunlap, 14th May, 1754 from "Chalkley's") (b. est. 1712-1725, d. 1789, Augusta County, VA)

James Robertson (b. bef. 1701, d. unknown), additional research needed on this family..

William Robertson (Beverley Manor NE, 473 acres acquired from his father-in-law James Kerr in 1764), (b. 6 Feb. 1718, Coleraine, Northern Ireland, d. 1812, Augusta County, Virginia), married Letitia Kerr, daughter of James Kerr. William was a son of James Robertson, listed above.

William Skillern (Beverley Manor NE, 635 acres, 1741), (b. abt. 1710, Ulster, Ireland, d. abt. 1744, Augusta County, VA), m. Elizabeth Perkins (b. 1719), supposedly a daughter of Elisha Perkins and Margaret Sherrill. After William Skillern died in abt. 1744, his widow Elizabeth married James "Ute" Anderson, abt. 1747, in Augusta County, VA. There is a very colorful story, detailed in early Augusta County Court records regarding Elizabeth and her second husband, James Anderson, alias "Ute Perkins".

Nathaniel Steele (2 Tracts: 1) Beverley Manor SW, 285 acres, 17 June 1748; 2) Beverley Manor SW (just to the west of previously acquired tract), 180 acres, 1766 from Chalkley's), (b. abt. 1722, d. 1796, Augusta County, VA), son of David Steele, brother of Robert Steele, listed below.

Robert Steele (Beverley Manor SW, 309 acres, 1749, adjoining 590 acres acquired by Samuel Steele in 1747), (b. abt. 1725, d. 1800, Augusta County, VA), son of David Steele, brother of Nathaniel Steele, listed above.

Samuel Steele (Beverley Manor SW, 590 acres in Beverley Manor, 17 Oct. 1747 from Chalkley's (shows as "1749" on Hildebrand Map), adjoining 309 acres acquired by Robert Steele in 1749), (b. 1709, Ireland, d. 20 Jan. 1790, Augusta County, VA), married 1st, Margaret Fulton and 2nd, Sarah Campbell.

MYSTERIES TO SOLVE

John Ramsey, Sr. (1725-1783) is the pinnacle Ramsey of this branch of my Ramsey research. Connections have been made to the earliest known Ramsey of Augusta County, Virginia – possibly Robert Ramsey who left a widow, Sarah Ramsey, living on her own in Beverly Manor of Augusta County. Sarah is a neighbor to Robert (b. 1702) and Isabella Ramsey. Isabella becomes a widow when her husband Robert is killed by Indians in 1759. Do all the American born Ramsey's of Augusta County stem from this tree? Is John, Sr. of the Beverly Manor Northern District of Augusta a brother to William (d. 1789) that settled in the Calf Pasture Southern District of Augusta County?

Andrew Ramsey, son of John and Mary Black Ramsey, remained in Augusta County in Waynesboro, VA after the death of his parents. Andrew Ramsey lived his entire life in Augusta County, VA – this is confirmed by his presence in the 1810, 1820, and 1830 census records. Andrew's birth and death dates are out there in cyber-space, but I do not have a verifiable source. I know very little about Andrew's wife Mary (nee Steel according to Internet sources) or any of his children. I only know of one son, John, possibly born between 1761-1770. I have found no Will, marriage, or cemetery records to date. This is an area that requires more research.

Probably the biggest mystery to solve is the John Ramsey, Jr. line that follows from his parents John, Sr. and Mary Black Ramsey. I am 95% certain that my wife's third-great grandfather, James Ramsey (1773-1849) is the son James that is listed in John, Jr.'s 1806 Last Will and Testament. I still lack that key piece of evidence of a land record, family letter, or DNA that would confirm the link. There were several family researchers in the Kentucky descendants' line from the late 1800's to early 1900's that stated that the John Ramsey connection was a fact – but I am not fully convinced. Location wise in the 1810 Augusta County, VA Census and the exact family names passed down from generation to generation are very strong circumstantial evidence but still does not fully make the case. The land in Kentucky that James Ramsey settled on is likely a Revolutionary War conveyance from his father or even from the George Ramsey that lived in Hopkins County, Kentucky with James in the 1820 Federal Census. George could very well be the link that would solve the mystery. Is George the allusive son of John and Mary Black Ramsey? Is it his property in Kentucky that was left to him by his father – then passed on to his nephew, James?

John Ramsey, Jr.'s Last Will and Testament was an excellent source of genealogical data – it clearly outlined his eight children: James, John, Andrew, William, Daniel, Samuel, Sally, and Margaret (Peggy) – and his wife, Jean/Jane. I have no other information currently on marriages or ages. There is a lot of research to do on this family. The only thing to go on is the generational ages of John and Jane's children would likely be in the 1770's and 1780's – with the 1773 Augusta County, VA birth date and location of James as a guide. The early 1800 census records show possible family members, but confusion exists with the William Ramsey (1725-1789) in the same county. It also doesn't help that there are a lot of Ramsey family researchers that have posted some questionable information online. I have attempted to filter out the “noise” as best as I can and strictly stayed to the documented facts – but even this effort can end up with an unintentional virus (excuse the pun – I do computers for a living.)

William Ramsey (1725-1789) of Augusta County, VA

At this point, this research into the William Ramsey (1725-1789) branch of Augusta County, Virginia is just beginning. I included this line because there is research online on William and his son, Dr. James Ramsey (1756-1815) that requires documentation to be verified as to the connection that has been made to Robert Ramsey (b. 1702) and John Ramsey (d. 1783). Early post-1800 Augusta County census records intermingle the William Ramsey family with the John and Mary Black Ramsey families posing a challenge to identifying the appropriate family members. Eventually, William's descendants show up in Rockbridge County, Virginia (the southern calf pasture District) which was at one time part of Augusta County – this helped to separate and identify the family branches.

The 1789 Last Will and Testament of William Ramsey is very useful in naming his children – it also puts him in Rockbridge County where his descendants are located. William married Mary Jane Paisley, but I have no source or other information for their union. Their oldest known child was Samuel who was born in 1753 – location unknown.

Another very useful source of genealogical data is a book on the Historic Houses of Augusta County by Joe Nutt.³⁹ The book provides illustrations and backgrounds on the various families that owned the homes. The chapter on “The James Ramsey House” was enlightening and a treasure trove of information on this branch of the Ramsey family.

The James Ramsey House is located on Marble Valley Road, Goshen, Virginia. It is still owned by members of the Ramsey family to this day. The house and property were purchased on 8 February 1786 by Dr. James Ramsey from John Ramsey (likely a relative). The author reports that Dr. Ramsey's father was William and that William had three sons; William, Dr. James Ramsey and Samuel that served in the Continental Army during the Revolution.

Dr. James Ramsey served in the 12th Virginia Regiment in Capt. Andrew Waggoner's company. He married Jane Lyle in 1786 and they had five children: John, William, Samuel Lyle, Sarah (Gamble), and Janetta (Dickson) Ramsey. Samuel Lyle Ramsey inherited the James Ramsey property after his father died. Samuel died in 1842, leaving his widow and 10 children. All five of Samuel Ramsey's sons served in the Civil War – they were: James M. (b. 1825 – died at the very end of the War), William Scott (b. 1832), Samuel Newell (b. 1834), Henry Kerr (b. 1836) and Alexander Brown. The Old Lebanon Cemetery in Craigsville, Augusta County has William's son, Dr. James Ramsey and several of his descendants buried there.

⁴¹ Samuel Ramsey (1791-1842) is son of William (1725-1789) and Jane Paisley Ramsey

⁴² Sarah Fulton Ramsey, widow of William (1770-1803) who died in 1803.

⁴³ This is likely Jane Lyle (1758-1836) widow of Dr. James Ramsey (1756-1815). Transcribed as “James” in census.

Robert Ramsey (d. 1844) of Henry County, TN

This branch of research began when my wife ran across a 2009 email from a Ramsey researcher that responded to a DNA match from her brother, John Ramsey. There were two letters of correspondence from Robert Ramsey (1787-1866) of Maury County, Tennessee to his uncle James Ramsey (~ 1761 – ~ 1842) in Lancaster County, South Carolina. These letters are provided as they were received (original email sender unknown):

Letter to James Ramsey of Lancaster, SC 21 September handed by Mr. Falkner, transcribed by Mary Lu Johnson from photocopy of original in possession of John W. Glenn of Lancaster, SC. Anything not original to letter is in different type font and in parentheses.

There is some significant genealogical data in these two letters. Robert's uncle James's wife's name was Rosannah and Robert's wife's name was Elizabeth. Robert shares that his father lived 110 miles to the west in Henry County, TN (Paris, TN post office address) and that his aunt lives about 20 miles from his father and that all the boys are married but his sisters Agnes, Elizabeth and Ester are still single. Robert said his brother John is not doing too well and that his brother William's oldest son died about a month back (letter dated about 1833). His father went to see his uncle John in Kentucky to help him with his Revolutionary War pension application and that James Nesbit family was doing well up there⁴⁴. Robert said his uncle John was married again. He mentioned that his uncle Alexander moved on to Illinois. Robert told James that all 6 of his kids are doing well⁴⁵. He said his wife's mom is living with them and to say hi to her brother and sister who lived around his uncle James in Lancaster County, SC.

All this information made for an excellent starting point for this branch of my research. Based on Roberts 1865 Last Will and Testament I was able to determine that he had eight living children at the time of his death. His children living in order of birth: John Givens, Mary Ann, Robert Givens, Sarah Jane, Samuel B., George A., James Thomas, and Martha A. Ramsey. James T. Ramsey was still missing after the War but must have survived because records show that he died in 1901 Shelby County, TX.

Through Census records and Revolutionary War Application and Pensioner records I found that Robert's father, Robert, Sr., was born in Craven County, South Carolina in 1758 (Craven County later became Lancaster County, SC where Robert, Jr.'s uncle James – his father's brother lived.) Robert, Sr., was a resident of Mecklenburg, NC at the time of his enlistment in the Revolutionary War. In 1778 he married Sarah Givens in Mecklenburg, NC. The information is supported by the 1790 Last Will and Testament of William Givens, father-in-law of Robert Ramsey, husband of his daughter Sarah. William Givens also left a horse to his grandson, Robert Ramsey.

Through marriage records and cemetery records on Find a Grave I was able to fill in a lot of family tree data. I tracked locations of the eldest Robert Ramsey Sr.'s known children: John (1757-1844), Robert (1758-1844), James (1760-1842), and Alexander (1763-1855) that were listed in the Ramsey letters provided. Internet sources have William (1762-1816) who died in Union County, KY, as a half-brother (his Will record included in this documentation) but I am not 100% certain of the connection at this time.

Craven County – later Lancaster County, SC, seems to be the starting point for this generation of Ramsey's. James Ramsey of Lancaster, Lancaster County, SC can be found back to the earliest Federal Census record in 1790, where he lived and died. In the 1790 Census of Mecklenburg, NC, there is the William Givens family and several Ramsey families, including Robert Ramsey (not sure if this is the eldest Robert or Robert (d. 1844 Henry, County, TN).

In one 1832 application submission from John Ramsey in Kentucky, he mentioned his brother Alexander was helping him with his application due to his memory issues and that their father's name was Robert – adding another generation to the branch. Some sources on the Internet have this eldest Robert Ramsey of the prior generation coming from Augusta County, Virginia. There is overwhelming circumstantial support that there are still two more generations of Robert's in this lineage – one of which could be the Robert Ramsey who was killed by Indians at Kerr's Creek in 1759.

⁴⁵ At the time of this letter, Roberts six living children were: John Givens, Mary Ann, Robert Givens, Sarah Jane, Samuel B. and Margaret Isabella (Margarett died young in 1838).

⁴⁹ Mary Ann Ramsey, daughter of Robert and Elizabeth Caskey Ramsey.

⁵⁰ Mary J. Ramsey, supposedly is the daughter of John Ramsey (1758-1844) and Ruth Donahue Ramsey (1795-1876) who were married in Hopkins County, KY in 1830. The Frasier family and Rutha Ramsey lived in Hopkins County together in the 1850 Census. I cannot explain the late marriage of John and Rutha Ramsey after Mary's birth but can only surmise that John needed to include Rutha in his revolutionary war pension application of 1832. John is reported to have "married again" by his nephew Robert Ramsey of Maury Co, TN.

MISCELLANEOUS ROBERT RAMSEY RESEARCH

Extracts of Early Settlers in Augusta Co, VA

Rev. John Craig (Beverly Manor NE, 335 acres, 1742) (b. 21 Sept. 1710, Ireland, d. 21 April 1774, Augusta County, VA).

Robert Craig (Beverly Manor NE, 178 acres, 28 Feb. 1749 as verified in Chalkley's, Volume III, pg. 650 (all transactions on page are from 1749) (b. bef. 1722), m. Grizzell, little is known of this family, need additional info/research.

James Ramsey (lived in the Cow Pasture and acquired an 80 acre tract on North River of Shanando from Daniel and John Smith on 18 August, 1756, from Chalkley's), (b. abt. 1717, d. abt. 1760, Augusta County, Virginia), possibly the brother of Robert Ramsey who was killed in the Indian Raid of "Kerr's Creek" on October 10, 1759, listed below.

John Ramsey, Jr. (Beverly Manor NE, 110 acres, 22 Aug. 1771), This is probably John Ramsey, Jr. (b. abt. 1747, Augusta County, VA, d. 1790, Kentucky), son of Capt. John Ramsey and Mary Black Note: the date is difficult to read on map, but the following Chalkley's information verifies this date: Page 324.--22d August, 1771. Robert Beverly to John Ramsey, Jr., £13.10, 110 acres in Beverly Manor., Hugh McClure's corner, Samuel McCunes line. Delivered: William Ramsey, 5th October, 1772.

Sarah Ramsey, widow (Beverly Manor SW, 309 acres in "Beverly Manor", 1742), referred to as "Widow Sarah Ramsey" in early Augusta records. Sarah was supposedly the widow of Robert Ramsey, who died abt. 1738-1742. Her son, Robert Ramsey, known as "Robert Ramsey of Beverley Manor" acquired land adjoining hers in 1747.

Robert Ramsey (lived in the Great River of Cow Pasture), known as "Robert Ramsey of the Great River of Cowpasture", who was killed in the Indian Raid of "Kerr's Creek" on October 10, 1759. More information is needed on his family. May possibly be a brother of James Ramsey, listed above, who also lived in the Cow Pasture area.

Notes on Robert Ramsey

Information from Rootsweb.com post of Lee Ramsey (e-mail: lkramsey@comcast.net):

Robert Ramsey of Beverley Manor

Robert Ramsey of Beverley Manor, Augusta County, VA married Margaret Beard. They settled in the Beverley Manor by 1742; and removed to Anson County, NC before 18 Aug 1762, which date Robert Ramsey and Margaret of Anson County, NC conveyed to James Henry 340 acres in Beverley Manor, adjacent to Samuel Huston, Robert Alexander, Patrick Hays and William Purris. This is most likely the same 340 acres that was sold to Robert Ramsey by William Beverley on October 17, 1747 in the following transaction:

Page 386.—17th October 1747. Wm. Beverley to Robert Ramsey, £10.4.0; 340 acres in Beverley Manor; corner to Win. Roberson; to RobL Alexander and Patrick Hays; to Wm. Robinson. Teste: Robert Alexander, Jno. Fulton, Robt. Baird. Proved by Ro. Alexander and Ro. Beard, 18th November 1747.

Robert Ramsey's mother may have been Sarah Ramsey, who was widowed by 1753, the year she conveyed 309 acres adjacent to Robert Ramsey in Beverley Manor to John Fulton. Sarah Ramsey was an early settler in the Beverley Manor, and her land deed there was recorded in Orange County, VA in 1742. Augusta County, VA was not organized until 1745. There is also the question of whether Robert Ramsey was a brother of Capt John Ramsey of Beverley Manor. John Ramsey was also in Beverley Manor by 1742 and died in Augusta County, VA in 1783. His wife, Mary, died in 1786.

Robert Ramsey's wife was Margaret Beard, the daughter of Thomas Beard, who left his will in Augusta County, VA 15 May 1769, providing a gift to Robert Ramsey and his children - "testator's grandchildren." Margaret Ramsey was not named in her father's will, inferring her death prior to May 1769. Robert Ramsey was one of the first elders of the Waxhaw Presbyterian Church, located near the mouth of the Waxhaw Creek, a tributary of the Catawba River. Robert and Margaret Ramsey's settlement in the Waxhaws was located in the far, southern end of the original Anson County, NC. The Waxhaw settlement land was taken into Mecklenburg County, NC in 1763, and later a portion fell into Union County, NC and a portion became apart of South Carolina .

Robert Ramsey (sealed)

Robert Ramsey of Anson County, NC

These records indicate that Robert and Margaret Ramsey were in Anson County, North Carolina in 1756 and sold their land in Augusta County, VA in 1762:

McBEE's ABSTRACTS of ANSON RECORDS show: p. 216:

"William Beard of Anson, sold to ROBERT DAVIS, for 30 pounds Virginia Currency, 300 acres on Waxhaw Creek. April 24, 1756. Witnesses: John Crockett, Robert Ramsey, Repentance Townsend."

On the very same day, Robert deeded part of this land as follows: "for natural love and affection for ALEXANDER CROCKETT, 202 acres."

ANSON MICROFILM: Feb. 22, 1754. William Pickens and Archibald Crockett were witnesses of a James Larrimore deed.

April 4, 1756, Robert Ramsey deed to JOHN DAVIS and MOSES DAVIS, all of Anson, for 35 pounds Virginia Currency, 380 acres on Waxhaw Creek, reginning at red oak, including Beard's corner. Witnesses: John Crockett, Repentance Townsend, Archibald Crockett.

⁵⁴ The northeastern part of Anson County, NC became Rowan County in 1753. The Robert Ramsey family is believe to be linked to the Augusta County, VA Ramsey families (as shown in several family trees on the Internet) but has not been completely accepted by myself without additional proof.

MYSTERIES TO SOLVE

In Thomas Beard's 1769 Last Will and Testament, he leaves money to Robert Ramsey's children (his grandchildren.) One Internet source said the daughter was Margaret Beard, daughter of Thomas Beard – Margaret was not mentioned in Will record (possibly deceased).

Isabella Beard was married to Robert Ramsey who was killed in 1759 by Indians at Kerr's Creek, VA. Robert Hall was an administrator of the Robert Ramsey estate on behalf of Isabella Ramsey. I do not have proof of the children's names or where they went. Isabella later married Robert Hall and moved away – some say to Orange County, NC. Did the kids go with them? Is there a Thomas Beard link?

I know nothing at all about the eldest Robert Ramsey of this branch. His generational age would be around the 1720's or 1730's and he likely lived in Mecklenburg, NC when his son Robert signed up for the revolutionary cause and when the younger Robert was married to Sarah Givens, but the families I located in the first available Census of 1790 are not conclusive. There is a promising lead to a Robert Ramsey (1725-1792) who married Margaret Beard and died in Waxhaw, Lancaster County, SC – but I need to see the proof. There is a lot of Robert Ramsey research on the Internet but nothing that I can point my finger to and say, "this is him" and he is descended from Augusta County, VA Ramseys.

Robert Ramsey who died in 1844 Henry County, Tennessee (according to Internet sources) still requires additional source documentation. The Revolutionary War records were very helpful, but I still need to verify ALL the children that he and Sarah Givens Ramsey had (I know for sure of William, Robert, Agnes, John, Elizabeth, and Esther). Internet sources show other children for this union - but they are unsubstantiated. The fact that his wife, Sarah Givens of Mecklenburg, NC is not in dispute – but, I have not been able to find anything of their deaths, burial, or children other than what is provided from Internet sources and the Ramsey letters – I would love to see some other documentation.

I know very little about Robert's (d. 1844) son John who lived in Kentucky (moving around between Union, Hopkins and Henderson Counties) - no wife or children's names at all. One Internet sources say his wife's name was Eleanor and that they had eight children – this is unsubstantiated. I know of one John Ramsey marriage to Ruth Donahoe in 1830 – possibly the second wife marriage mentioned in one of the Ramsey letters. I tracked her and her daughter, Mary Ann Ramsey Frazier (wife of Allen Frazier) to the 1870 Union Twp, Ste Genevieve Co, MO Census⁵⁵ but still had not been able to verify the connection to John who died in 1844 Henderson County, KY. To further add to the mystery, the James Ramsey (1773-1849) family bible has the 1830 John Ramsey and Ruth Donohoo marriage recorded in it – but it does not show where John fits in the family.

In the 1830 Maury County, TN Census there is a Thomas Ramsey and John D. Ramsey – father and son – but, I have not found a connection to this family. Thomas was very well off, and his 1845 Last Will and Testament provided the following information:

- Son-in-law William Timonton
- Son-in-law Sidney Henderson
- Son-in-law ???rd Fleming
- Son Rufus G. Ramsey
- Son Wilson? Ramsey
- Son Thomas C. Ramsey
- Son Duncan R? Ramsey
- Granddaughter Semera? Henderson
- Susannas living children (former wife?)
- Son John D. Ramsey and Thomas daughter? Marey Shields
- Children of both my former wives
- Three grandchildren that I have in Illinois Thomas Shields and William Shields, and Mary Shields
- Present wife Margaret

⁵⁵ Rutha Ramsey lived with the Allen Frazier family from at least 1850-1870. Rutha reported her age as 100 in the 1870 census – either this is her true age correctly reported the first time, or this age was reported incorrectly.

Daniel Ramsey (1740-1810) of Person County, NC

While researching the line of James Ramsey (1773-1849) in Hopkins County, Kentucky, I ran across a couple other Ramsey families that seemed unconnected to the James Ramsey line – they were the Daniel Ramsey (aged 40) and Thos T. Ramsey (aged 30) families of North Carolina. Daniel had married Francis Townsend 15 Jan 1830 in Person County, NC and Thomas married Julia Wikinson 5 Aug 1841 in Mecklenburg County, NC. As I researched back to Person County, I found a Daniel Ramsey (1740-1810) buried in the Ramsey Family Cemetery, Woodsdale, Person County, NC. An article I found on Find a Grave fills in a lot of family information on this line.

RAMSEY GRAVEYARD

With location described by a nearby resident (and guide to it) as” “Behind Old Airport and Kent’s place, and between Tom Webb Road and Tingin Place,” high on a hill in Person County is a graveyard covered with Ramsey’s. Most of the stones are granite, and identify the occupant of the space.

It is NOT laid out like a cemetery – the stones are “hither and yon.”

Of particular interest to me – and to those descended from Abednego Gentry and Frances Ramsey – is the stone of William Ramsey, Sr., and his first wife Nancy Jones.

Abednego’s Bible – which is still in existence – has Frances Ramsey’s identification as daughter of William Ramsey and Nancy Jones.

Further proof of this wife is in Person County Book 5, page 53, when William and Nancy gave a Power-of-Attorney to her brother-in-law, William Jones, to go to King and Queen County, VA in the interest of her inheritance as daughter of Edmund Jones, deceased.

William Ramsey’s stone shows birth date as December 2, 1778, and death as March 7, 1852.

Next to him is Nancy, whose markings say: “Departed this life July 19, 1835.”

William’s marriage to Mary Boswell was August 28, 1836, in Person County. Abednego Gentry, his son-in-law, was his witness/bondsman.

When William’s will was probated in 1852, it left property to Mary as his widow, and/or to his LIVING children. The will named 6 sons and 1 daughter⁵⁶. However, as his widow (alive, and NOT remarried), she was free to distribute as she desired.

The 1850 census shows William as 72, and Mary as 65. When they married in 1836, he was 58 and she was 51, so it is doubtful that she was the mother of the Ramsey Children.

Sources: Information for this article is from gravestones, Abednego Gentry’s Bible, and official records of Person County.

According to Find a Grave the actual burial location of Daniel, Sr. is unknown – the land the Ramsey Cemetery is located on is from 422 acres once owned by his son William in 1801. The cemetery is located on Route 55 N. – about 7.5 miles north and 1.5 miles east of Roxboro, NC (Person County seat). Find a Grave shows Daniel being born in Virginia but at this time I have no proof of this. Also on the site, reference was made that Daniel is first found in a tax record of 1777 Caswell County, NC – Person County was formed from Caswell around 1791/2.

I only know of three sons born to Daniel Ramsey, Sr. – his wife is reported to be Francis Townsend (1745-1805), but this is not proven. I first found Daniel, Jr (born bet. 1761-1770) in Jackson County, TN 1820 Census. Daniel’s sons, Lewis (1751-1853) and William (1778-1852) are buried in the Ramsey Family Cemetery. Lewis was the father of Thomas T. Ramsey of Hopkins County, KY – Thomas’s 1856 death record listed his parents as L(ewis) and A(nna) Ramsey. William was the father of Daniel Ramsey, in Hopkins County. Daniel died in 1855 “intestate” and his widow Francis Townsend Ramsey (yes, another Francis Townsend) is living with a few of their children in Webster County, KY.

⁵⁶ I saw no list of the 7 children in the William Ramsey Will copy that I found on the Internet.

MYSTERIES TO SOLVE

Is Daniel Ramsey, Sr. linked to the Augusta County, VA Ramseys – if so, how?

Daniel Ramsey, Sr. has several descendants that ended up in Hopkins/Webster County, Kentucky – is there a link to the James Ramsey (1773-1849) branch? Or is this just a coincidence?

I only have three sons and no daughters known to Daniel Ramsey (b. 1740) – and the age spread between them is noticeable – are there children not accounted for? A Will record would be nice to find.

There are a lot of Townsend intermarriages in this branch, including two Frances Townsend marriages – one to Daniel, Sr. and the other to grandson Daniel (b. 1809). The Townsends ended up in Hopkins/Webster County, too. Where did this line begin – did the Townsends start from the same ancestor?

There was a George Ramsey unaccounted for in the 1810 and 1820 Hopkins County, KY census – could this be the Daniel Ramsey, Sr. connection?
