STANLEY

A good portion of the Stanley information I have comes from sources through the Internet and Quaker records. Because of the volume of information, I have been unable to verify it all. I have included much of the data in my Thomas Stanley descendants outline because what I have confirmed has been accurate, plus, a researcher needs to start some place.

My Stanley ancestry follows from Thomas Horton Stanley (1670-1714) who immigrated from Lancashire, England, through his son John and John's second wife Martha Hutchins (married 11 Oct 1743, Hanover County, VA.) Sometime in the late 1700's my Stanley line migrated from Virginia to Columbiana County, Ohio. By the time the 1820 Columbiana County, Ohio census was taken there were several generations of Stanley families in Columbiana County.

When comparing early census, tax, marriage, and land records of Columbiana County to the known Stanley families gleaned through LDS, Quaker and Internet sources it was very confusing determining who the original Stanley's were that came to the county because there seemed to be several main branches of Stanley's that were not directly related. It became clearer once I studied the Stanley intermarriages closely and determined that ALL of the Stanley's in the region<sup>1</sup> linked to the children of John (1691-1783) and Martha Hutchins (abt 1709-1789) Stanley; Thomas, Millicent and Agatha Stanley. Thomas (my ancestral line) married Unity Crew; Thomas's sister, Milly, married John Stanley, son of the Maddox and Hulda McGehee Stanley; and Agatha married Littleberry Stanley, son of Thomas and Sarah Crew - Littleberry's brother, Thomas, married Edith, a daughter of John and Milly Stanley. Two of Unity Crews siblings married Stanley cousins and they all settled in Columbiana County, OH. Four of the five children of John and Martha Hutchins married Stanley cousins and 3 of those families settled in Columbiana County, OH.

I was able to identify and place all the families from the early Columbiana County census reports - thanks to Paul, Wayne, and Donna Purdom of Bloomington, Indiana and the many other Stanley relatives who helped compile an impressive file of Stanley descendants. Another valuable source of information was Family Tree Maker's Ohio marriage index CD (1789-1850). It provided me with an excellent source of data to verify and contribute to the information I accumulated. Even with these outstanding resources nothing is better than being there; on a few occasions, I had the opportunity to visit the cemetery in Damascus, Ohio that contained many of my Stanley relations. I tried my best to compile a listing of the Stanley's buried at the cemetery - many of the older stones were worn and unreadable.

I was unable to locate any of my direct ancestry in the Damascus cemetery. The last sign of my direct Stanley line in Columbiana County, Ohio, is an 1820 death record of my fifth great-grandfather - James Stanley. It listed his heirs as Milton, Amy, Robert, and Judith. Robert and Judith were under 21 and were assigned William Fawcett as their guardian. Through LDS records, I learned that James Stanley's widow, Rhoda Cobbs Stanley, remarried to James Vaughn in 1822 and moved to Morrow County, OH, where she died in 1877.

I located Milton, James and Rhoda's eldest son and my fourth great-grandfather, in the 1840 and 1850 Marion County, Ohio census (a county right next to Morrow County where his mother, Rhoda Cobbs Stanley Vaughn lived.) Milton Stanley was married in Marion County, Ohio to Elizabeth Martin in 1836. Elizabeth was the daughter of John Still and Sarah Michener Martin—the Michener line is well researched in LDS records. Milton and Elizabeth lived in the county long enough to have six known children. Sometime between 1850 and 1859 they moved off to Marshall County, Indiana where their oldest son Robert, my third great-father, began his family.

<sup>1</sup> With the exception of a couple Stanley families that came from England and Germany in the early 1900's – all of the families in the region of Mahoning and Columbiana County, OH are John and Martha Hutchins descendants.

Robert C. Stanley was married 23 April 1858 to Ann Maria Cornelius in Marshall County, Indiana. Ann was the daughter of Hiram and Ann Ferguson Cornelius. I have Robert and Ann in the 1860 and 1870 Marshall County census reports. I also found Ann's mother, Ann B. Cornelius, in the county at the same time. I have never found any trace of the younger Ann's father in the 1850, 1860, or 1870 census reports, although, her mother continued to have children. Robert and Anna Cornelius Stanley and Robert's brothers, Samuel Oscar and James Martin Stanley, were later found in Ottawa County, Kansas.

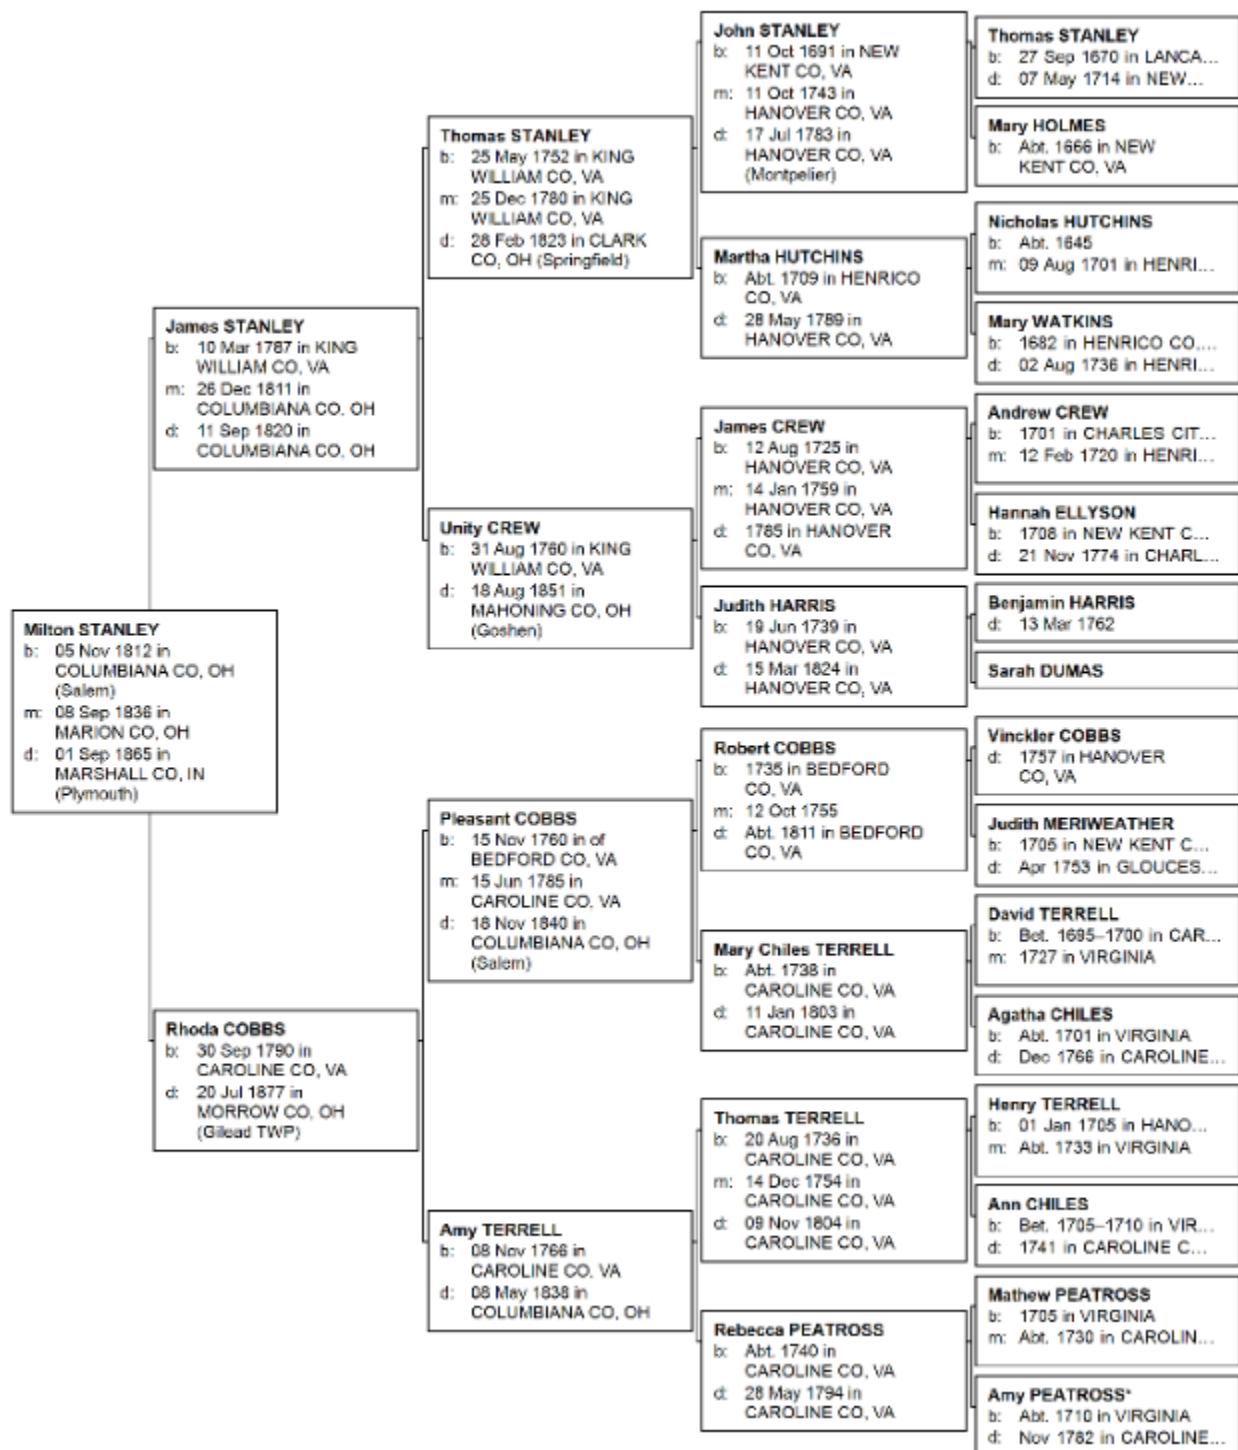

LDS records report the death date of Milton Stanley as 1865, in Marshall County, IN. The last documentation of him I have is in the 1860 Marshall County, Indiana census. In 1870, Milton's widow, Elizabeth Martin Stanley, was living with her son-in-law, Newton Aldaffer—but, it appears that her daughter, Mary Jane had died a short time before. I was surprised to find Elizabeth Martin Stanley in the cemetery of Culver, KS. She apparently came to Ottawa County, Kansas with son, Robert or James, and died in 1888 - but I did not see her in any census reports after 1870.

Robert C. Stanley died in Ottawa County, Kansas, on 20 June 1899; Ann Maria Cornelius Stanley died on 6 December 1893—mention of their deaths was brief in the Minneapolis Messenger:

The oldest son of Robert and Anna, William Milton Stanley, stayed in Culver, Kansas and married Nancy Margaret Pierce in 1882 Ottawa County. Nancy died in 1942 at their Culver residence. William died in a neighboring county hospital a couple years later - his obituary filled in some family background information.

William Milton Stanley's daughter Grace Alice Stanley married Elzy Ray Davis in 1904 Ottawa County, Kansas—they were my great-grandparents. Grace died shortly after childbirth in 1926 Hays, Kansas; her last child was Elzy Ray Davis, Jr. The Minneapolis, Kansas library had a nice collection of articles on file, and microfilms of the Minneapolis Messenger, that contained numerous Stanley obituaries.

Hello!

Thank you for the response! Although we are not relatives, we are very honored to have the house. It was constructed sometime between 1820 and 1838. It is located between Damascus, Ohio, and Salem, Ohio in Butler and Perry Townships of Columbiana County. The farm drive is over 1/2 mile long, so it's a bit off of the beaten path.

We do have some interesting records, but I'm not sure if they are all the same Stanley's...

Anyway, the address is 1589 Cider Mill Road, Salem, OH and we are in the process of moving this weekend. We are unsure of when the home was actually constructed, but it is comprised of brick and stone from the property, and in a Quaker style.

We were so excited to find and be able to buy the far. It's now 65 acres, and has passed through many families. My husband and I are both history buffs, and if there's anything we can share, we'd be happy to. (I also have taught at a Community College, although now that my husband and I relocated to Ohio, I'm at a private college).

We have a record which indicates that the property was one-quarter of the Northwest Territory patent awarded to Thomas Stanley of VA in 1809 (1752-1823) and his wife Unity (1760-1851). The Stanley property was then divided between Moses and Joseph Stanley in 1824. We have some of the deed information from both sides. Moses and his wife Susannah oversaw the farm. Thomas Jefferson surveyed the property and laid the corner markers.

The farm then passed in 1820 to Moses' son, Jesse Stanley who farmed it with Jeremiah Stanley. There is a stone barn with a "basement room" from the Underground Railroad, which we find most interesting about the property.

Jesse died in 1859, and the property went up for auction. His sister, Catherine, bought the farm at the public auction in 1861. We have the auction notice. We have Susanna's will, her mother, which gives some info on the family, too. Later in 1861, Unity Stanley's husband, Uriah Royer (I believe a non-Quaker) bought the farm from Catherine. There are some documents which included parts of the property passing to Robert Carr in 1862 and William Phillis in 1873. However, the next recorded deed information indicated that the Royer's sold the farm to John Barr in 1900. It was then sold again in 1906 to two brothers from Germany, August and Alfred Klose. In 1912, Rollin Heaton bought it and in 1925 sold it to John and Katherine Lutsch. The farm then went into severe debt and disrepair. It was auctioned to David and Josephine Regal in 1938 and then sold again to Robert and Ann Crumbacher in 1945...all seemingly foreclosures. In 1946, a John and Mary Skowron returned from WWII in Europe and purchased the farm at auction for $10 and satisfaction of its debt. They made few improvements on the property and lived very simply. They did bring electric to the farm at that time.

In 1996, John and Theresa Capron and their family from Cleveland bought the farm. It still had only an outhouse and needed many repairs. Several of the potential buyers wanted to tear it down. However, they painstakingly restored the home, including the brick, stone, slate room, and fireplaces.

In 2005, my father passed away at our house in Louisville, OH, and Theresa Capron was my Dad's hospice nurse. We never got to thank her for all she did, and yet 6 months later when we saw the listing for the farm, we visited it--and were surprised to find it was hers. We made an offer and now we're moving to the Stanley farm! It's been an amazing trip! My husband and I will continue the renovations (John Capron, although young, suffered a heart attack and could no longer maintain the property). The house has been completely rewired, renovated, and had new plumbing...the next step for us will be the outbuildings.

Anyway, we are very honored to have the home, and were just trying to get some information regarding the original builders and perhaps farm use. If any of the documents I shared would be of interest, we can scan them in and send them.

Thank you for your reply and time. Sorry for the long, verbose response I've made, but I wanted to try to cover all my bases.

Thank you again and have a great Memorial Day!

Best,

Jacqueline Mumford

Hello, while doing research online for my family tree, I came across your very impressive history of the Stanley ancestors. My Great-Grandmother was Lydia Mabel Stanley, daughter of Robert C. Stanley and Anna Maria Cornelius. Lydia Mabel Stanley married Otis Joseph Courtney, and their daughter Inez Corrine Courtney was my Grandma. Inez married Paul Francis Woods (my Grandpa) and they had 6 kids, my mother being their second child.

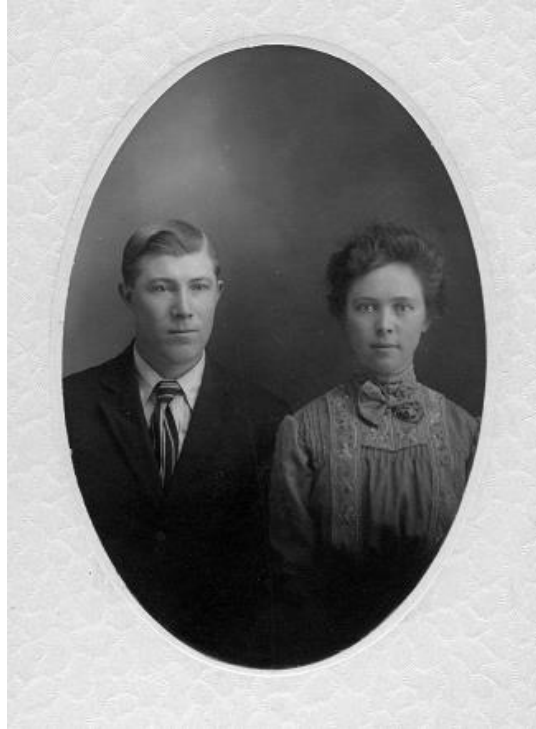

I have some confusion about my 3rdG-Grandmother, the wife of Hiram Cornelius, Ann Ferguson (or Bone or Bowne). I have her dates as 1810 or 1812 - Nov 10, 1872. Born in NJ and died in Indiana. After the death of her first husband Hiram, I have some information that she may have remarried Daniel Russell around 1857, but divorced him because he was abusive to her and her daughters.

Do you know what her actual maiden name was? Is it Bone, Bowne or Ferguson? Or was she married before Hiram and so has multiple last names? Any info would be helpful.

Thank you very much.

Barbara Schaub Domek.

Name: Absalom CORNELIUS

Birth: 1 MAR 1798

Death: 17 APR 1880

Absalom CORNELIUS was born in North Carolina and moved to Virginia while quit young. He was married there to Elizabeth COTTON, daughter of a Baptist Minister and a splendid type of Womanhood. Absalom was engaged in framing and lumbering and in 1832 moved to Iowa. In 1885 he joined a wagon train of fifty wagons and crossed the plains to Oregon via St. Joseph, MO and the Platte River trail, leaving in May and arriving at The Dalles in October. From there they reached Oregon City in a flat boat. In this wagon train was the family of Benjamin CORNELIUS. Absalom left his household goods and cattle at The Dalles for the winter, while he settled on a claim of 640 acres east of Oregon City. Here he built a saw mill and cleared a fine farm. In 1850 he took up a claim of 640 acres in Marlon County, built another mill and cleared another fine dairy and cattle farm and set out orchards that are not excelled anywhere in Oregon. He was one of the outstanding figures in the county. With his kinsman, Col T. R. CORNELIUS, he was in the early history of Oregon chosen by the Indians as the arbitrator in their differences and difficulties and his decisions were always abided by. His children were all noted as good citizens. Of his sons, Absalom was county commissioner and county assessor of Marion County. Samuel was in the Cayuse and Rogue Wars. Green B. was noted as a public speaker. George was nurseryman, dairyman and framer. Moses was a lumberman and politician, and all were fraternity men, members of the Masonic bodies, Eastern Star and Grange, also consistent church goers.

In Reply to: CORNELIUS, Allen, Jr. by: Vivian Cornelius Chastain

My Cornelius book has Allen Jr born in 9-8-1830 Married Sarah M. Bates. The note says, " Allen Cornelius was a plumber and a farmer. Served 3 years in the Civil War. Retired from business in 1900. Lived in Nora, IL and Lena Hill, IL He was born in Williamsburg, Indiana and died 7-26-1913 No children are listed!

Thanks. You've added some information for me and I appreciate your sharing. Have you anything on Allen Cornelius, Sr., who I believe was born in New Jersey. Had one communication that said believed Sr's father was George Washington Cornelius...dates and places seem right. They said they'd get back but haven't heard yet. Do you show anything on this or can you refer me to a source? Thanks so much! Vivian

Yes, Vivian, there was an Allen, Sr. However, my information is scanty. Allen Sr. (1800-1838) born probably in Queen Annes County, MD. Son of David Cornelius (1780-1804) spouse unknown. Siblings: George (1820-1821); Esther (1821-1822), William Wallace (1822-1823); Abram (1824-1825); Sarah Allen (1826-1827); Eliza A. (1828-1829); Alfred (1833-1834); and Jackson (1835-1836). Father David was the only son of I know of of James (1750 - WFT Est. 1783-1841) spouse unknown. James' father was Abram Cornelius (1701 in Italy-1784 in Queen Anne's County, MD). Mother's name is unknown. Abram's (either second or third wife) was Nancy Wendell (1705-1774). James had brothers - Samuel (1746); Jacob (1747), John (1748-WFT Est. 1749-1838); Isaac Miller (1759-1836)-(my ancestor who moved to Butler County, PA); Benjamin (1765-1827)-who moved South (I believe North Carolina). It is said, and I cannot verify it, that these brothers moved into Kentucky, Indiana, and West Virginia. This does verify how Allen Jr. was born in Indiana. As for Allen Jr., I show him as having Charles Sumner and Ralph Jackson, but did not have info on Arthur and Louis Noble. I would appreciate whatever you can forward to me. Hope this helps.

I, too, have an Allen Cornelius in my background. You mention an Allen Jr. who married one Sarah Bates. I have three children listed for them: Arthur (b. 1867), Charles Summer (b. 1872), and Ralph Jackson (b. 1876). I also have Allen, Jr., born in IN, with the same dates, so I am hoping that we are writing about the same families, but my history extends from a brother of Allen, one Hiram.

Ansalem Stanley

(son of Joseph and Abigail Cobb Stanley)

Meet my grandfather Ansalem Stanly who was a resident of Henry County, born in Columbiana County, Ohio, July 13, 1817, son of Joseph and Abigail Cobb Stanley a daughter of Pleasant and Amy Terrell Cobb natives of Virginia in which state not only the grandparents but also the parents of my grandfather were born. My great grandfather Joseph left Virginia being against slavery went to Ohio in 1805 continuing in agriculture.

There were eight children, three daughters and five sons, Joseph and two of his brothers married sisters. They had a saying, the squirrels take the corn, the Stanleys take the Cobbs.

Grandfather's education was in the common schools of Ohio.

At the age of twenty-one in 1838 he started for Iowa, his brother Joseph and four other young men. They proceeded down the Ohio and thence up the Mississippi River to Ft. Madison, Iowa. From there they drove across country to Salem township, Henry County.

Grandfather worked at cabinet making and carpentry for many years. Our home was built by my grandfather in 1873 for the Isaac Matthews. He superintended the work of building Whittier College at Salem, also Whites Institute which have since been destroyed by fire. He owned 160 acres of land in 15 and 16 sections in Salem township.

Grandfather was married first to Pheobe, daughter of Eli and Elizabeth Denny Cook May 4, 1842. There were four children, Elizabeth, Joseph H., Daniel, and Mary P.

His wife died fall of 1851 and on December 15, 1851 he left for California accompanied by John H. Pickering and wife, John R. Smith, wife and baby, Ruben and Henry Dorland and James Mace.

They left home by the water route down the Mississippi across the Gulf of Mexico then across the Isthmus of Nicaragua. Sailing from there on the ship New Orleans, taking three months, Ruben Dorland and Smith baby died, buried at sea. The ship docked March 27, 1852 at San Francisco.

Grandfather followed carpentry his four years in California then returned to Salem.

October 22, 1856 he married Hannah B., my grandmother and daughter of Robert and Hannah Butler Ellyson. She graduated from the Friends Academy at Mt. Pleasant, Ohio, later coming to Salem, Iowa to live with her Aunt Ellen Kimberly who lived in the rock house now known as the Lewelling Shrine. Grandfather and grandmother were married in the home of her Aunt Ellen.

The story goes that Ellen Kimberly was concerned about a crack on the south side of the rock house and asked grandfather about it. He told her, thee don't need to worry it will be standing long after thee are gone. She died in 1869, it is still standing erect a hundred and eleven years later.

Grandfather and grandmother had nine children. Robert Leander who married Elizabeth Bausman had no children. Phoebe first registered in southeast Iowa in 1898 never married, but adopted a boy George. Ina married Arthur Hunnicutt parents of Clifford, Harold, Edgar and Refa. Schuyler never married. Amanda was a chiropractor in Riverside, California and never married. Charles A. married twice, first, Cora daughter of Richard and Susan Davidson. They had three children, Merle, Ellen and Harold. Second he married Mary, daughter of Robert and Ellen Cline Ridgeway Stansbery. They had two daughters, Marjorie and Ina.

Jeanette B. attended Whittier, Howes Academy, was an artist and never married. Zadok married Harriett Nash and had four children, three living, Cedric, Russell and Robert. Sidwell married Anna Brown and had one daughter Cecelia.

My grandparents were Quakers and Republicans. Grandfather died in 1905, grandmother in 1909. Both are buried in Salem South Cemetery.

A question unanswered who took care of Ansalem and Phoebe's four children while he was in California!

by Marjorie Stanley Brown, Ansalem's granddaughter

Joseph Vaughan

JOSEPH VAUGHAN, farmer; P.O., Mt. Gilead; is a native of Columbiana Co., Ohio; he was born Sept 24, 1831, and lived there until 1839; they then moved to Marion, now Morrow Co., Ohio, and farmed near Mt. Gilead; he lived with his parents until about 1855, when he went to Iowa, and worked at carpentering and building for fourteen months; he then came to his present place and has lived here since. Jan 1, 1862, he married Miss Annie Hollingsworth; born in Morgan Co., Ohio; of their six children born, four are living—Mary E., Geneva A., James E. and Arthur E. He owns 127 acres in this township, located three miles southeast of Mt. Gilead; his parents, James and Rhoda (Cobb) Vaughan, were natives of Virginia. They married in Columbiana Co., Ohio and came here as stated, where they lived until their death, in Dec. 1859, and July, 1877, respectively. Of their seven children, five are living—Rebecca, now Mrs. Kirk, of Sharon, Iowa; Joanna, now Mrs. Gardner, of Cottage Corners, Ind.; Rhoda, now Mrs. Thomas Wood, of this county; Joseph and Linley J., both of this county.

Joseph Hobson

JOSEPH HOBSON, a venerable citizen of Gilead Township Morrow County, Ohio, and for forty years identified with the ministry of the Friends' Church, forms the subject of this article.

Mr. Hobson's father Joseph Hobson, was a native of Maryland and a son of Joseph Hobson, the latter emigrating to Jefferson county, Ohio, about 1800 and making permanent settlement on a half section of land, he being one of the most prominent and influential citizens of the community. The mother of our subject was before her marriage Miss Rebecca Talbut, she being a native of Maryland and a daughter of John and Elisabeth (Johns) Talbut. She first came to Ohio with her brother Joseph about 1800 and settled in Jefferson county. She and Mr. Hobson, however, were married in Pennsylvania, and they made the trip from their abode on a piece of land owned by his father in a Friends' settlement. There he ran a mill for a few years, and afterward removed to Stark county and settled on a piece of land his father had entered for him. This tract he cleared up and developed into a farm, and on it he died in 1828 or '29, leaving a widow and seven children, five sons and two daughters. The mother kept her children together and returned with them to Jefferson County, where she bought a small farm and resided for many years. Only two of the family are now living, Joseph and Abraham J., the latter still a resident of Jefferson county.

Joseph Hobson was born December 14, 1818, in Stark County, Ohio and remained with his mother until he was nineteen years of age, his educational advantages being limited to the common schools. Leaving home, he went to Columbiana county Ohio and for two years cultivated a farm there on shares. In 1842 he came to Morrow county, then a part of Marion county, making the journey here on horseback, and at that time having no capital save his willing hand. April 27, 1842, he married Miss Amy P. Stanley, a native of Columbiana County, Ohio, born July 30, 1815, daughter of James and Rhoda (Cobbs) Stanley, her family having settled in this county in the spring of 1839. After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Hobson located on forty-eight acres of land, the property now owned by Nelson Newsom, and from there removed to his present farm in 1850. At one time he owned 160 acres here but has disposed of thirty acres of it. He cleared the greater part of this farm and made all the improvements upon it, including buildings, fences, etc., and now, in their old age, he and his good wife are enjoying the fruits of their honest toil and are surrounded with all the comforts of life. They have had six children, four of whom are living namely: Rhoda A. Goodman, Thomas C., Elizabeth T. and Louisa.

As above stated, Mr. Hobson has been a minister in the Friends' Church for forty years, and until recently he has had active work. By his own plain, Christian life he has exemplified the truths he has so earnestly taught, and few have exerted a greater influence for good than has Joseph Hobson. In his early life he was an Abolitionist, and took an active part in that movement. He has always been a temperance man and is now identified with the Prohibition party, and, indeed, throughout his whole life, his influence has ever been directed on the side of truth and right.

William Milton Stanley (1859-1945)

Grandpa Stanley Dies

William Milton Stanley, 86 years old, a resident of Ottawa county, of the Culver vicinity, since 1880, died in the hospital in Salina last Saturday, following an operation. He became ill and was taken to the hospital about ten days previously, but his age was too great a handicap to overcome. Recently he had been living with his son Ray, and family, near Tescott.

He was born on a farm in Indiana, February 23, 1859 and was the eldest of a family of eleven children. His boyhood was near Twin Lakes, Indiana, then at the age of 21 he came to Kansas and since that time had lived in Ottawa county. On August 17, 1882, he married Nancy Margot Pierce, daughter of pioneer neighbors and they established their home near Culver. Seven children were born to them, four of whom survive along with 29 grandchildren, 35 great grandchildren and two great-great grandchildren.

His wife, one daughter, Mrs. Grace Davis and two sons, Lee and Oliver, preceded him in death. The four surviving children are all sons, John, of Bennington; Ray, of Tescott; Archie, of Wichita and Louis of Culver. He took great pleasure in the families of his children and grandchildren and will be keenly missed by all of them.

His living brothers and sisters are Hayes Stanley, of Fresno, Calif.; Mrs. Annie Brown, of Rocky Ford, Colo.; Mrs. Ida Reed, of Salina; Mrs. Lydia Courtney, of Emporia and Mrs. Stella Clingenpeel, of Chapman, Kansas.

Daniel M. Martin<sup>147</sup> (1819-1868)

SAD ACCIDENT--Mr. Martin, the head sawyer at Moore and McClure's Steam Saw Mill, about twenty-three miles from this place, met with a serious accident on Saturday last. It appears that it was necessary, until after the logs are squared, or slabbed, to hold them on the carriage with a cant-hook. At the time the accident happened, while sawing a log through the center, it was thus held against the head blocks, when the wedge which had been driven in to spread the log and prevent the saw from binding, came out, and the saw became bound, stopping the carriage with a sudden jerk, and throwing the cant-hook from the hands of the man who held it, the handle striking Mr. Martin, who was standing near the saw, with great violence on the forehead, fracturing his skull. Dr. Palmer, of this place, was sent for, who immediately went out. Though the injuries are very serious, the Dr. has hopes of his recovery.
